

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3021-3022

Charlie nodded and said: "You are right. If you directly sell the entire ocean shipping group, it is equivalent to taking a huge amount of compensation and then breaking with the Banks Family."

Zara hurriedly asked, "Do you have any good suggestions for me?"

Charlie said: "I am preparing to start the ocean shipping business. At present, I have enough funds in my hand. What I lack is ready-made resources. If you are interested, we can set up a joint venture company together. All the resources of the ocean shipping group will become shares."

Zara asked with joy, "Do I work directly with you?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded and said: "But I don't want to announce my identity yet, so this ocean shipping company should establish a new company shell separately, and my personal information will not appear in this company. In the company."

Zara knows that Charlie has always been low-key, so he said: "As long as Charlie has a word, Zara will immediately integrate all the resources that can be integrated and serve Charlie wholeheartedly!"

Charlie said seriously: "I don't want you to cooperate with me because I saved you. Since you are a partnership in business, you must get what you need, and you must not let the other party purely contribute."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "My terms of cooperation are that I invest 10 billion US dollars in cash and use all the resources that I can integrate as equity. On your side, you will integrate the entire Banks Family ocean transportation group. Come in and set up a new company, I account for 51%, and you account for 49%. If you are sure that you are willing to cooperate with me, then I will start making the next arrangements now."

Zara said without hesitation: "I am willing!"

Charlie nodded and said seriously: "If this is the case, then I will help you win more resources and initiative."

With that said, he picked up his cell phone, called Isaac Cameron, and said: "Old Isaac, bring Mai's cell phone here."

Isaac Cameron quickly rushed over with a turned off mobile phone.

Charlie took the phone, turned on the power directly, found Lord Banks's contact information, and said to Zara: "I will call your grandpa now."

Zara asked in surprise: "Charlie, you...why do you want to call him?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Didn't he always want to find me, then I'm just as his wish."

So, just when Lord Banks was scratching his head for the situation in front of him, Charlie directly pressed the dial button in front of Zara and Isaac Cameron.

Lord Banks, who was in distress, suddenly saw Mai calling himself, and he was overjoyed!

He subconsciously said: "I think Mai shouldn't have any trouble, as long as he smells a little dangerous smell, he will immediately run away!"

After speaking, he immediately picked up the phone and blurted out and asked, "Uncle Mai, where have you been? I have been looking for you and haven't found it all morning!"

Charlie sneered on the other end of the phone, and said mockingly: "Don't look for it, he has been controlled by me."

Charlie's words made Lord Banks's heart stunned, and the phone almost fell to the ground without holding it firmly.

After a while, he forced himself to calm down and asked tentatively, "You...who are you?!"

Charlie smiled and said: "Master Banks, you have spent so much effort and sent so many people to Aurous Hill to find my whereabouts. I was really flattered, so I took the initiative to call and say hello to you."
