

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3025-3026

“Yes.” Charlie nodded and said with a smile: “Lord Banks seems to have five sons, the eldest and the second are in my hands, and there are three left. Each of these three people must be looking forward to inheriting the Bank family.”

After speaking, Charlie said again: “Originally, these three people may not have thought of this. But as the boss and second child disappear one after another, it will definitely make each of them have a chance to have oneself. Inheriting the illusion of the Banks. This is not yet considered Lord Banks’s grandchildren. Those younger generations must also hope to be able to take the Banks Family’s power alone.”

“So, Lord Banks is not a last resort. He will never leave Huaxia, because once he leaves, he will probably not come back in his life.”

In the ancient royal family, many members of the royal family were permanently exiled. The reason was that those in power did not want this person to come back and threaten their rule.

Even in modern times, there have been some attempts to usurp the throne in foreign countries. Generally, the president went abroad for a visit, and the domestic coup was launched on the back. At the same time, we must guard against the death and never let the former president return to the country.

As a result, the former president can only live in exile.

Therefore, the day Lord Banks left China. It must be the beginning of his demise!

Zara remained silent, and looked at Charlie for a while, and then asked: “My grandfather, are you trying to force him to ask me for help?”

“Yes.” Charlie nodded and said with a smile: “Your grandfather must be particularly insecure right now. There is no strong expert protection around him, whether it is in Southaven, Eastcliff, or other domestic counterparts. It is very difficult for the city to guarantee his own safety, and he has been holding the power of the Banks Family and is reluctant to let go, so he dare not go abroad. The only option is to make peace.”

After a pause, Charlie shook the phone that had been turned off in his hand, and smiled: “But I have already put the cruel words out just now, and this phone has also been turned off. He wanted to make peace, but he couldn’t find it at all. Any way of contacting me, the only way is to find you.”

After speaking, Charlie said again: “If he really asks you to make peace, then you readily promise him, but you must not say too badly, you tell him that you will try your best, but you are not sure you can Persuade me.”

Zara hesitated for a moment, and asked him: “Men, are you worried that after we cooperate in ocean transportation, he will come forward to obstruct?”

"Yes." Charlie said earnestly: "The market value of the Banks Family's ocean transportation business under normal circumstances is at least RMB 300 billion to 400 billion. Even if it is facing difficulties now, the actual total fixed assets is at least RMB 200 billion. , Your grandfather puts such a big piece of cake in your hands, he only hopes you will keep it for you, instead of just picking up the knife and fork and eating it."

"Once you take the entire ocean shipping group to cooperate with me, in his eyes, it is equivalent to selling it as a cub. He absolutely touched his inverse scales. He will do his best to stop You, even at the end of the day. Oppose you again."

Having said that, Charlie turned around and said with a smile: "But you can rest assured that after you agree that he will intercede for him, you don't have to worry that he will turn his face."

"Because I didn't have time to take care of him for a while, calling him threatening to find him, but it was just a fake shot."

"So, he is safe in a short time, at least I won't move him."

"And he will definitely attribute this kind of security to you, feeling that it is entirely your help."

"At that time, he will see you as his amulet, how dare he stop you from taking out the Banks Family ocean transportation group and reorganizing with me?"
