The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 3027–3028 Charlie Wade Chapter

Only then did Zara banks understand that it turns out that Charlie called his grandfather a moment ago to threaten him, in fact, to make his grandfather jealous.

I have to say that Charlie's move made her very moved.

She was originally worried that she could not hold such a large ocean transportation group, and worried that after the limelight passed, her grandfather would try the same trick again and find a way to snatch this big cake back.

However, with the phone call from Charlie just now, she believed that for a long time in the future, she would no longer have to worry about any danger.

So, she stood up, bowed slightly to Charlie, and said respectfully: "Benevolence...oh no, MR. Wade... thank you so much..."

Charlie waved his hand lightly, and said lightly, "I am helping myself, and the ocean transportation group in your hand is very high in assets, and my side is almost an empty shell, although I will inject capital as promised. 10 billion dollars, but in comparison, I still take advantage of you more or less."

Zara banks hurriedly said: "It's not like this...I find it difficult to revitalize this ocean shipping group. At most, I sell it at a low price. If I cooperate with MR. Wade, this asset will not only be revitalized, but it will also have more There is more room and possibility for development, so we can be regarded as mutually beneficial."

Charlie smiled slightly: "You are right, doing business in partnership means mutual benefit."

After he finished speaking, he said again: "It just so happens that you are calling today in the name of Yuhiko Ito. Then the new company we established can claim to the outside world that it is a cooperation between you and the Ito family. Your grandfather always wanted to cooperate with the Ito family. Go online, then you might as well let him think that you have caught up with this line, so that it will also make him more recognized for your abilities."

Zara banks nodded and said gratefully: "Zara understands, everything is up to you!"

Charlie looked at the time and said with a smile: "I guess it won't be long before your grandfather will call you. You have to think of everything you need to do later."

at the same time.

Banks Family Villa.

Lord Banks was already pale in shock at this time.

Originally, he planned to let Felix and Mai find the mysterious person, and then kill him when he was not prepared.

But I never dreamed that the two of them were cold now, and they would sell themselves as the behind-the-scenes ambassador.

As a result, the other party called and said that he wanted to change the rules of the game. How could he not be afraid?

Especially the other party also accurately stated that he was in Southaven.

Coming from Aurous Hill to Southaven is very close, maybe when I go to bed at night, my neck will be wiped by the other party.

Banks (Butler) on the side was very worried and asked, "Master, what are your plans next?"

Lord Banks couldn't hide his nervousness and said: "You heard it just now. Felix and Mai were in the hands of that kid. This guy really doesn't speak martial arts at all, even the one hundred-year-old old man doesn't let go. After that, let alone me..."

As he said, Lord Banks sighed, and some Liushen said: "And this guy now knows that I am in Southaven, this is the most dangerous..."

Banks (Butler) hurriedly said: "Master, based on my humble opinion, our top priority at the moment is to leave Southaven quickly! Southaven is too close to Aurous Hill... If he finds it, it will only take three or four hours to drive. ..."

Lord Banks nodded, sighed and murmured: "Hey! It's easy to leave Southaven, but where do you go after leaving?"

Banks butler said quickly: "Master, or let's go back to Eastcliff!"
