

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3035-3036

Zara banks heard this and couldn't help but look up at Charlie.

She found that Charlie had a clear idea of his scheming grandfather. He said that his grandfather would definitely come to ask for his help, but he didn't expect his grandfather to be as he expected.

However, she didn't know why Grandpa angered Charlie, nor did she know that Grandpa sent a Gu art master to Aurous Hill to try to assassinate Charlie.

So, she did not immediately agree, but instead asked: "Grandpa, you said you had a misunderstanding with Grace. Can you tell me the specific misunderstanding? Even if I promise you, I have to understand it before I can find it. An entry point to communicate with him."

Lord Banks hesitated for a moment, sighed, and said: "Hey...it's not a misunderstanding, it's mainly because grandpa I was confused for a while. I hired a master of metaphysics from the UK and sent him to Aurous Hill to find your one. The whereabouts of my benefactor."

After that, Lord Banks excused himself again: "Actually, I didn't want to hurt the benefactor, I just wanted to find this man out and talk to him face to face, but the metaphysical master I invited may have tried hard. Meng, killed an innocent person in Aurous Hill, and tried to kill the benefactor, but it was all that guy's own idea, but your benefactor didn't know, thought I was sent to kill him, so some mad at me....."

Zara banks was dumbfounded.

She didn't expect that grandpa would dare to engage in such small actions!

And this little action is no longer directed at me, but at the benefactor!

This immediately made her angry, and blurted out, "Why did you send someone to assassinate Grace?!"

Lord Banks discovered that Zara banks's title for himself immediately changed from "you" to "you", and realized that she must be very angry, and hurriedly explained: "This is not my intention, it's all that guy he doesn't know what to do. , I must try to be competitive..."

Zara banks asked back: "Do you think I will believe it? You can even kill my mother, let alone benevolent?"

Lord Banks knew that his sophistry was meaningless, so he could only helplessly say: "Zara, it is meaningless to say these now. Grandpa can guarantee that he will never make the same mistake again in the future, and I hope you will talk to the benefactor. situation....."

Although Zara banks was very angry, remembering what Charlie had said, her tone eased a little, and she said, "I'm currently in the Shangri-La interviewing Ito Yehiko of the Ito family. The situation on my friend's side is really not very good. Clearly, but after I finish talking with Mr. Ito, I will try my best to intercede

After finishing speaking, Zara banks warned solemnly: "Grandpa, I have to tell you something clearly. Grace has saved me twice, and also saved my mother and my brother. He was kind to me and recreated. In my heart, he is more important than you!"

Although Lord Banks was very upset, he did not dare to say anything at this time.

He knew that what Zara banks said was the truth. In Zara banks's mind, he was not the grandfather who petted her, but a half enemy, so he was not surprised when Zara banks said this.

However, he was surprised at Zara banks's clear-cut attitude. It seemed that the acting style of his granddaughter had become more simple and rude.

Although he felt unhappy, Lord Banks was relieved when Zara banks said he was willing to intercede for himself as much as possible.

Immediately, he achieved his goal and did not continue to struggle too much on this issue. He directly changed the subject and said: "By the way, Zara, how are you talking with Ito Yuhiko? This guy has always wanted to cooperate with us before. We rushed out of Asia and to the world together, but since the incident in Tokyo, it seems that we have not looked down upon us very much."

"Yes." Zara banks said: "Mr. Ito's attitude has indeed undergone some changes, but his mentality is understandable. At the moment we are talking pretty well. After all, now is not what it used to be, and I have also lowered it. In some gestures, I intend to use the entire ocean shipping group to establish a new company with the Ito family. At that time, the Ito family will hold 51% of the shares and I will hold 49%. In this way, the fixed assets will be transferred to the new company name, and then the Banks Family will be transferred to the new company. The cancellation of the ocean shipping group should be able to circumvent the previous restrictions and risks."

Lord Banks was surprised when he heard this, but he did not feel very resisted.

He did not expect that Zara banks would really be able to reconnect with Ito yuhiko. Although this cooperation sounds a bit uncomfortable to lose controlling rights, it is a special situation after all, and if you want to, you must make appropriate sacrifices.

In the long run, assets and business can be reborn from the shell, even at the expense of a part of the profit, and the entire business can be revitalized, so as not to lose more and more.

Thinking of this, he reminded Zara banks: "Zara, it's okay to cooperate with the Ito family to establish a new company, but you must keep a back hand and state in the contract that after you buy these assets and resources into shares, We retain the power to withdraw completely, so that once the restrictions on us are lifted, we can also withdraw all these assets and restart Banks's own ocean transportation group."

Charlie listened to the side, and couldn't help but wonder in his heart that this old guy is really good at calculating, and he didn't forget to keep a back hand at this time.

Zara banks felt in his heart that since he decided to cooperate with Charlie, naturally he couldn't play with Charlie's mind.

Doing this kind of trick is equivalent to notarizing the dowry before you get married to your husband's house.

In this way, once the marriage breaks up, or if you don't want to spend time with your husband, you will leave with all your dowry.

Although there is no problem in the law, with this premise, the relationship between the couple cannot always be stable, and this behavior will naturally become a gap between the two.

Therefore, she said to Lord Banks: "In this matter, I still intend to show 100% sincerity to cooperate with the other party. Only in this way can everyone cooperate perfectly without reservation and make the industry bigger and bigger together. As soon as everyone came up, they kept each other's minds, and this kind of cooperation will certainly not last long."
