

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3056

When Richmond heard the master speak so confidently, his waist straightened suddenly.

He stepped back, raised the phone in his hand high, and said to Isaac Cameron: "Our young master has something to ask you personally!"

Isaac Cameron frowned in disgust, and said coldly: "Something to say, some fart!"

"Grass!" A young man shouted immediately on the other end of the phone: "Who the hell are you? You don't know how to praise me? Do you know who I am?"

Isaac Cameron sneered: "You know, aren't you just a singer? I heard that your family has spent money to support you for several years and you just can't support it. In the end, you just went abroad to change your head and barely became popular, didn't you?"

"Grass!" Himanshu on the other end of the phone gritted his teeth angrily: "You're so f*cking looking for death! There is a way to tell me what your name is, if you don't die!"

Isaac Cameron said indifferently: "My name is Isaac Cameron. The general manager of Aurous Hill Shangri-La, I will come directly if You want to die. I am waiting for you."

Himanshu was stunned. Immediately he sneered: "Who do I say is that pretending to be such a force? It turned out to be the general manager of Shangri-La, so you are from the Wade Family?"

"Yes."

Himanshu gritted his teeth and said, "What about the Wade Family? You don't have the surname Wade. To put it bluntly, it is a dog from the Wade Family, who is also worthy to bark in front of me?"

As he said, Himanshu threatened: "Don't blame me for not giving you a chance to redeem your merits. I will immediately drive away the person who currently occupies the presidential suite, clean the room and leave it for me. If you do it wisely, I will Just forgive you this time, otherwise, when I arrive in Aurous Hill, I will definitely make you unable to eat!"

Isaac Cameron smiled and said, "Then you'd better come quickly, I can't wait."

"Grass!" Himanshu scolded angrily: "Is your f*cking brain pitted? You can't get down the stairs, and you have to wait for the disaster to be satisfied? I'll give you one last chance to save me the presidential suite. When I get to Aurous Hill, you will kneel in front of me and apologize, otherwise, I will kill you!"

Charlie listened to the side and couldn't help frowning and saying, "Isaac, don't talk nonsense with such idiots, hang up the phone and drive these silly dogs out, so as not to upset me who is crooked here."

Isaac Cameron nodded. He directly grabbed Richmond's mobile phone and broke his iPhone into a ninety-degree angle with his hands. The phone was instantly powered off.

Richmond was startled, and blurted out: "You...what are you doing?"

Isaac Cameron said coldly: "What am I going to do? I want to beat you!"

After finishing speaking, a slap in Richmond's face fiercely slapped Richmond's face, and Richmond turned around in a circle, dizzy and almost fell to the ground.

Seeing this, several other companions stepped forward and threatened: "Do you not want to do it at Shangri-La? Even Manager Richmond dare to fight!"

Richmond, who came back to his senses, also said angrily: "Aren't you f*cking looking for death?! Believe it or not, I will let our young master kill you?"

Isaac Cameron raised his hand without hesitation and slapped again. He directly knocked Richmond to the ground, and said with a look of contempt: "You bird man, you don't have a long memory if you don't fight hard."

Having said that, he immediately ordered the security captain on the side: "Drag these people out for me, and find a place where no one is there to beat me up!"

The security captain said immediately: "Good President Isaac!"

After speaking, he immediately took out the walkie-talkie and ordered: "A team of all personnel come to the presidential suite!"

Seeing that Isaac Cameron was really moving, Richmond immediately persuaded him and pleaded: "Mr. Isaac. Don't be familiar with me. I also serve the master. The master said that he wanted this presidential suite, so I'm a servant. Hurry up and implement it. I was so impatient and clashing just now. I'm really embarrassed. Please also have a lot of yours, please raise your hand high..."

Isaac Cameron sneered: "You want to beg for mercy now? It's too late!"

At this time, more than a dozen security guards ran over quickly.

When Richmond and his entourage saw this scene, their legs became frightened.

Richmond hurriedly pleaded, "Ms. Isaac, it's all our fault. Can You still get out of our way? The concert will begin in a few days. I can't go ahead and busy with my injuries..."

Charlie said at this moment: "Isaac, I have an idea. You take all the communication equipment of a few of them, and then give them some hiking equipment. Use a helicopter to throw it into the old forest behind Phoenix Mountain. Go, isn't that there are always donkey friends who sneak in to explore, and then get trapped and can't ask for help from the rescue team? Just throw them into the deepest valley and let them come out by themselves."

Isaac Cameron smiled and said, "MR. Wade. Even a well-trained person will not be able to climb out for two or three days."

"It doesn't matter." Charlie said with a smile: "Just let them evaporate from the world. By the way, taste the suffering of the world."

Isaac Cameron understood Charlie's intentions. He probably wanted these guys to miss the concert perfectly.

So, he instructed the security captain: "Tie up all these people to me, take away all the communication equipment from them, and then put them on the helicopter."

When Richmond heard this, he knelt on the ground with a thud, and several other people knelt down after seeing this.

Richmond knelt at the front, crying and said, "Mr. isaac, you have a large number of them, don't play with us in death... Our body, it's impossible to get out of the old forest in the deep mountains..."

Charlie said: "It doesn't matter if you can't get out. Give you enough food and water, if it doesn't work, you can live in the mountains for a few days and experience the beauty of nature."

With that, Charlie asked Isaac Cameron: "Does Shangri-La have the relevant qualifications and permits to operate tourism business?"

"Of course." Isaac Cameron said hurriedly: "The various tourist qualifications of Shangri-La are very complete."

Charlie smiled and said: "That's really great. Now we will launch a 'survival in the wilderness: deep mountain adventure tour' experience activity. The feature of the activity is to experience survival in the wilderness. The organizer is Shangri-La, and these few people came from afar. The guests are the first lucky customers in this wilderness survival experience. They got a chance to experience it for free."

Isaac Cameron immediately smiled knowingly: "Then I have to ask the lawyer to quickly sign a travel contract, and then have them all sign it."

"Yeah!" Charlie said with a smile: "Be sure to indicate that they are participating voluntarily and that any accidents will bear all the consequences, and then ask them to sign and slap, and then stamp their hands."

"I understand!" Isaac Cameron nodded in excitement. Seeing Richmond's wailing in fright, he immediately ordered the security captain: "It takes time for a lawyer to draw up a contract. Don't be stunned here. Hurry up. Bring people to the top floor and beat me up. After the fight, I waited by the helicopter. After a while, the lawyer took the contract up, and they sent me away as soon as they signed it!"
