

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3061

Because she changed other etiquette companies, misappropriated and even oppressed the etiquette ladies, and devoted herself to the welfare of the etiquette ladies group, so now the ladies of the Aurous Hill Qianyi ladies trust her very much.

Moreover, with Charlie's face, Sean and several of his capable officers, including Caesar, usually help Wendy to introduce various resources, so Wendy not only does a big business, but also in Aurous Hill, The competitors did not dare to provoke her.

Shangmei etiquette company has more and more business and more and more etiquette ladies. The company has not only changed to a larger venue, but also successively bought several minibuses and buses to pick up etiquettes in Aurous Hill. Pick up various activities around.

In addition, Wendy also specially invested in the acquisition of a closed dance training studio, used the dance classroom as a training venue for the etiquette ladies, and also hung up a huge sign and named it Shangmei etiquette training base.

In order to set up this training base, she specially invited ladies of etiquette who have participated in world-class events such as the Olympics and Asian Games to be teachers, which immediately improved the overall quality of the ladies of Shangmei etiquette company.

In the past, Aurous Hill, and even most of the courtesy ladies across the country, actually didn't have any professional skills.

The industry does not have high requirements on them. It is just that they are beautiful, good-looking, and well-built. If it is an ordinary business activity, let them be responsible for welcoming guests; if it is a large-scale exhibition, let them make a guest appearance. Car models; sometimes some press conferences, political and business activities, they will also be used to fill the front. As long as they wear uniform uniforms and stand on the scene with a smile, the whole event can be more perfect.

However, there is often a demand for high-end etiquette ladies in the market, such as various large-scale competitions and various official events. At this time, some professionally trained etiquette ladies are needed.

Wendy has grasped this quality now, and the rank of Shangmei etiquette company has been improved a lot. Some large-scale official events in the city will find them to cooperate, so the popularity is also relatively high.

At this time, she happened to take the staff to class at the training center, and saw someone adding her friend. The remark was: "Hello, my name is Simi, and a friend introduced a business to ask you for cooperation!"

Wendy didn't think much about it, so she just clicked through.

As soon as the other party's friend applied, that Simi immediately sent a voice: "Hello, Miss Wendy, because of business reasons, my side urgently needs 200 to 300 young girls. I will go to Aurous Hill Airport in two hours. Fans pick up the plane, I wonder if you can pick it up here?"

After hearing this voice, Wendy was a little surprised for a while.

She has been a courtesy lady for a long time, and the time to run Shangmei is not too short. She has taken a lot of all kinds of activities, but she has never taken up the job of pretending to be a fan and picking up the plane at the airport.

So, she replied a little apologetically: "I'm sorry, Miss Simi, we have not done this business before and are not very good at it. In order not to affect your business development, I suggest you find some professional companies to do this. "

Simi became anxious when she heard this.

Looking for a company that specializes in this area?

Professional companies are not absent, but they all have to prepare resources in advance.

Don't say that I can't find the group leader Richmond docked with. Even if I can find it, it is even more impossible for the other party to temporarily adjust the schedule for tomorrow morning to two hours later.

Because these people are not staring at this project all the time. Those group performances are like taxi drivers. They are either running the single job or the single job. If you make an appointment, you will use the car at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. He can only make sure that no other work will be held at this time tomorrow.

Therefore, it is simply unrealistic to want to temporarily change the appointment time, and to change two to three hundred people in one go.

Because of this, Simi felt that in Aurous Hill now, only Wendy could do this.

Because she is different from the group head, the group head is only an intermediary and has no absolute control over the following group performances, but Wendy is different. She has her own company, and her own company directly signed hundreds of etiquette ladies. The young lady is all her employees, and she must have absolute control over her own employees.

Therefore, she hurriedly pleaded, "Miss Wendy, I really have no other choice now, so I can only ask you for help. It doesn't matter if you haven't done this kind of business. In fact, this is very simple. It only requires you to coordinate. Well, when the time comes, let them appear at the designated place at the designated time, and then call out the slogan we designated."

After Wendy listened, she still didn't want to take on such a job.

Under her management, Shangmei etiquette company has already embarked on the fast lane, all aspects of operation are very smooth, the cash flow is also very abundant, and the profit margin is relatively high.
