

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3062

In this case, she really didn't want to take on this kind of weird job.

Therefore, she was still very sorry and said: "I'm really sorry Miss Simi, this business does not match our company's business, to be honest, I am not very interested in it, so please forgive me."

When Rishab on the side heard this, he immediately yelled at Simi in anger, "Damn! A company of etiquette, what the hell is it with me! Tell her! 300 people, I will give 300,000 , 1,000 yuan per person! This price is much higher than the normal price of the courtesy lady, as long as she is not a fool, she will definitely not refuse!"

Simi had to continue to send voice messages to Wendy: "Mr. Wendy, do you think this is okay? You will give us three hundred courtesy ladies. We only need them to pretend to be fans at the airport for about half an hour. As long as you agree, We can pay you 300,000 yuan here!"

Three hundred thousand is indeed not a small amount.

Generally speaking, an ordinary extra actor, who works hard for a day, earns between 150 and 200 yuan.

The salary of a lady of manners is slightly higher, but it is basically in the range of 500 to 1,000 throughout the day.

There are not many courtesy ladies who can exceed 1,000 yuan a day, unless you go to the auto show to make a guest car model, it is possible to get such a price.

However, Wendy carefully weighed it and decided to refuse, because she had never done anything like this, and she was worried that it might cause any trouble.

So she replied: "I'm really sorry Miss simi, we really can't pick this up."

Simi's heart suddenly became extremely helpless.

She looked at Rishab on the side and asked subconsciously: "Master, what do you think of this?"

Rishab's expression was very gloomy, he really didn't expect that the other party would refuse to open this price.

Therefore, he subconsciously took Wendy's decision as a way of holding back.

Immediately, he gritted his teeth and said coldly: "Damn! It's nothing more than asking for more money! Tell her, we won't talk nonsense with her, a price of 600,000 yuan!"

Simi hurriedly sent a voice message to Wendy: "Miss Wendy, then we will increase the remuneration to 600,000 yuan. Is this always okay?"

Wandy was indeed a little moved.

Today is a working day, and it is still Tuesday. Most of the work of a company like them specializes in etiquette is concentrated on the weekend.

Because most business events are held on weekends.

In addition to the two busiest days on weekends, there are also more things on Monday and Friday.

Because Monday and Friday are the first and last days of the working day, many companies and institutions will choose these two days for any major activities.

From Tuesday to Thursday, there is really not much work to do. Most of the etiquette ladies are resting these days, so the company also chooses to train the etiquette ladies in batches during these days.

Today, hundreds of full-time courtesy ladies in her company are resting. Except for one hundred and fifty people who are receiving training, the rest are taking a break.

Therefore, as long as she decides to take over this business, she can make sure that within ten minutes, she can sort out a specific list of three hundred people.

Just one trip to the airport, two or three hours before and after, can generate 600,000 yuan of income for employees and the company, which is indeed very cost-effective in Wandy's view.

Although she had never handled this business herself, she thought she could give it a try for a reward of 600,000 yuan.

Since the cooperation agreement of Shangmei etiquette company is that the lady of etiquette will take the big head and the company will take the small head, so as long as these three hundred people go to the airport, everyone can have an income of more than 1,500 yuan. For them, It is also a rare and good opportunity.

Thinking of this, Wandy couldn't help thinking: "This Simi is given such a refreshing price. It seems that she is really anxious. According to market rules, the more urgent work, the more rewards you can get. After all, In the industry, this can be regarded as an emergency. Rescue is like fire fighting. As long as you find someone to help in the industry, the price will be higher. This is also an industry rule that everyone knows well. Then even if I ask her for more, It is also natural and understandable."

Immediately, Wandy said, "Well, Miss simi, everyone is a business man, so I won't hide it anymore."

"To be honest, you are really a stubborn stubborn situation. You will need people in two hours. Time is too tight; and if you want to have 300 people, the number is too big."

“Many of my employees are now at work, and some are on vacation. If we coordinate 300 people, they will definitely have to put off a lot of work, which will have to pay Party A a lot of liquidated damages;”

“Even if employees who are on vacation are summoned to work, they have to double their salary according to the holidays.”

“And if time is in a hurry, everyone may not be able to use public transportation. Most people have to take a taxi. The airport is so far away, and the cost increases a lot...”

“So if you really want to do it here, I have a minimum of 1 million. If you think it’s ok, I will coordinate. If you think the price is too high, it doesn’t matter. You can look at other companies!”
