

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3063

Wandy itself is not a silly and sweet thing. Although she hasn't done much business before, she has suffered from the sadness of the world in the past two years. Therefore, she now knows the basic law of survival in society, which is to do her best to fight for her own interests.

Moreover, now she is not alone, and there are hundreds of young girls eating with her behind her. Naturally, she wants to fight for more benefits for everyone.

When Simi heard that Wandy was asking for one million, he immediately looked at Rishab on the side.

She is just Rishab's assistant, should this money be spent? It all depends on what Rishab means.

Rishab's expression was extremely ugly at this time.

He gritted his teeth and said: "This Wandy's appetite is really not small! I dare to ask for a million from me for such a small matter. It is clear that I am going to knock me off! Do you really think I'm being taken advantage of?"

Seeing Rishab's anger again, Simi said hurriedly: "Master, then I reject her now?"

Rishab glared at Simi. He cursed: "Do you have any brains? I refuse her now, and no one will pick me up when I arrive in Aurous Hill? How can I post today's draft? How can I buy it on hot search?"

After all, Rishab said with a cold face: "You tell her that one million is one million, but I will pay 500,000 first, and the remaining 500,000 will be paid after the work is over."

Rishab thought very simple, such a hasty thing. There was no time to sign the contract. Everything was agreed verbally. First, 500,000 yuan was paid, and the remaining 500,000 yuan would not be paid after the completion.

Regardless of Rishab's big family, he is also a first-line star, but the sunk cost he invested in the early stage is too large, and in order to maintain his "top-tier" label, he needs to continue to spend money, so he pays special attention to cost. .

What makes Rishab even more annoying is that in order to pursue Stefanie Sun, he chose the music line to cut in. In recent years, the singer's ability to attract money is far worse than that of actors.

Regardless of the fact that you can earn tens of millions or even hundreds of millions of dollars in a year by relying on various performances, variety shows, and announcements, the promotion and marketing costs behind each year are basically the same as the income.

If the huge gold mine of Stefanie Sun cannot be settled yet, Rishab even has the idea of quitting the entertainment industry.

Simi also understood what Rishab meant, and paid 500,000 yuan first, and the next 500,000 yuan would definitely be useless.

Although she didn't want to do something without business ethics, since the boss has spoken, how dare she disobey, so she had to say to Wandy, "Mr. Wandy. Our boss agreed. One million is no problem, but the money has to be paid first. Half, pay the other half after it's done."

Wandy didn't know how many times she was scammed. She was no longer the stupid woman back then. She understood the other party's intentions instantly, so she said: "Miss Simi, if your company is willing to cooperate, after paying the full amount in one go, I'll start the arrangement here. If I don't want to, let's forget it. I don't accept any form of bargaining. Even if you pay 99% first and then 1%, please forgive me."

After Rishab listened, his face was green and said: "This lady is really cruel, and he choked me all of the bargaining room!"

Simi asked helplessly: "Master, what should I do now?"

Rishab cursed: "What the hell can I do, promise her! Let her arrange for me to go there! If I get off the plane and can't see more than 300 female fans, I F*cking kill her!"

Simi asked tentatively: "Then let the finance transfer money now?"

"Okay!" Simi gritted her teeth: "You need to check the other party's account number, and then notify the financial transfer, I will directly approve the mobile phone."

"Ok."

Simi finally breathed a sigh of relief, although this matter is not his own, but if it is not resolved in the end. Rishab will definitely trouble himself.

Fortunately, it is finally resolved.

Although a lot of money was spent, this account must be recorded on Richmond's head, and it has nothing to do with himself.

So, she hurriedly confirmed cooperation with Wandy, asked Wandy for the collection account, and then immediately arranged the finance to be responsible for the payment.

When Rishab boarded the private jet and was waiting for takeoff, the financial side finished the transfer process. After Rishab used her mobile phone to approve, Wandy immediately received financial feedback and received one million from Rishab's actor agency studio.

Wandy was very happy. In her opinion, this business was simply to improve everyone's lives, so she immediately sent a voice message to the company's Thousand People QQ group, and Aite said to all the members: "Sisters, I just received a big deal!"

Many people in the group hurriedly asked what the big deal was.

Wandy said: "It's a temporary job as a female fan at the airport. The other party needs 300 people. They will arrive at Aurous Hill Airport in two hours. The pick-up process takes half an hour. This time Party A is a local tyrant. The reward is two thousand and five for one person!"

Wandy received one million this time. According to the process, she left a profit of 250,000 to the company, and the remaining 750,000 was used to give back to the employees. It was just two thousand and five per person.

As soon as the news was sent, the group suddenly exploded!
