

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3070

The brawny man didn't bother to pay attention to him, and said coldly: "You'd better not talk until you get to the place, otherwise I will take off my socks and put them in your mouth. I will remind you in advance that my socks have not been changed for a week."

Rishab immediately closed his mouth with interest.

This is the end of Huluo Pingyang, and it seems that I can only wait to see that Isaac Cameron.

At this time, what Rishab could not imagine was that a video titled "Rishab met three hundred hunk fans picking up the plane in Aurous Hill" was posted to the short video platform.

This video captured three hundred fierce hunks who rushed to the airport to pick up Rishab and confessed to Rishab frantically.

At the same time, Rishab was surrounded by a group of hunks, and he was even taken out of the airport with his legs raised by two hunks.

Immediately afterwards, the person shooting the video deliberately asked one of the hunks who came to the pick-up from the perspective of a sneak shot: "My buddy, may I ask, are you all Rishab fans?"

The hunk curled his lips in disdain, and whispered: "Brother, to be honest with you, I don't even know what the hell is doing."

The video shooter asked in surprise: "Then why did you come to pick up the plane?"

The hunk said with a smile: "Hurt! Someone gives money! Come over and pick up the plane and give two thousand slogans. Isn't it better than going to work?"

After speaking, the macho smiled and said: "I won't tell you, I will go up and shout two slogans, and I will almost finish work and go home!"

Immediately afterwards, the hunk ran away quickly, and the video ended here.

As soon as this video was uploaded to the short video platform, it was immediately pushed to all users quietly.

The push of the short video platform is relatively concealed. Instead of sending a message directly and letting the user click to watch, it directly uses the recommendation algorithm of the server, so that everyone who is using the short video platform can refresh the next video next time. , Seemingly accidentally brushed this one.

As a result, tens of millions of people across the country saw this video instantly.

The exaggerated scene in the video made many people laugh. When they learned that these hunk fans were hired by Rishab with money, netizens immediately launched an overwhelming group of ridicules on Rishab.

When Rishab faced three hundred evil men at the airport, his stunned and bewildered expression was also made into an emoticon package by countless netizens, and the whole network instantly became popular...

As soon as Rishab's video was exposed, it was immediately searched on major websites.

Netizens thought that Rishab did another stupid thing, similar to the last time he hired a group to play in the anti-Japanese war movie, but this time it was even more weird.

However, the Zhong family smacked out an extraordinary meaning.

So they immediately contacted Rishab, but they didn't expect that several people in Rishab and his party were almost lost.

This made them realize that Rishab must be in danger.

Afterwards, the Zhong family immediately started the relationship and inquired everywhere, even including the relationship to people in Aurous Hill City, hoping to find the whereabouts of Rishab.

At this time, Rishab had been sent directly to Shangri-La by the bus.

Rishab did not expect that he originally wanted to book the Presidential Suite at Shangri-La, and then he could get close to the water tower and have a good relationship with Stefanie Sun, but now, the Presidential Suite was not booked, but he was given to him by a group of people just like the prisoners. Grabbed it.

He was angry and scared in his heart, but before he had time to think about it, Isaac Cameron's men handed him over from several strong men, and then took him directly to Isaac Cameron's office.

In the office at this time, Charlie, Don Albert and Isaac Cameron were drinking tea.

As soon as the door opened, Rishab, with a flustered expression, was brought in with a collar.

As soon as he entered the door, he began to look at the three people in the office, but it was the first time for him to see the three people, including Charlie, so he couldn't recognize who the spokesperson of the Wade Family was.

So he asked tentatively: "Dare to ask who is Manager isaac from Shangri-La?"

Isaac Cameron said lightly: "I am."

Rishab hurriedly said: "Manager isaac, is there any misunderstanding in this matter today?"

"Misunderstanding?" Isaac Cameron sneered: "I don't think there is any misunderstanding, aren't you arrogant on the phone? So I have to invite you over whatever I say and talk to you in person."

Rishab plucked up the courage to blurt out: "Manager isaac, I know that you are from the Wade Family. The relationship between our Zhong family and your Wade Family has always been very good, especially your Cynthia Wade aunt wade, who is very close to my father. Good friend, so I believe that today's matter cannot be her meaning, and it is not even Wade Family's meaning.
