After speaking, Charlie said again: “However, if I also throw Fitz Banks into Syria now, she will definitely not be able to accept it, and there is no reasonable reason for me to do this, and I can’t stand for reason or reason. Stop it.”

“Okay.” Isaac Cameron said in a daze: “Actually, I just think this guy really hates Miss sun with bad intentions, but you can rest assured, Master, I will definitely keep an eye on him. If he dares to fix any monsters, as long as you In a word, I immediately controlled him.”

Charlie smiled and said, “Tomorrow, the team from the girl will be here. If you need your help, you must be more dedicated.”

Isaac Cameron immediately stated: “Master, don’t worry, in my heart, Miss sun’s priority is second only to you!”

In the early morning of the next day, the two business jets landed at Aurous Hill Airport 15 minutes apart.

There are planes landing early in the morning, which is still very rare in Aurous Hill, because most of the first flights on duty are from the airport early in the morning, so there are a lot of planes leaving the airport early in the morning, and there are almost no incoming planes.

Of the two business jets, one flew from the north, and the other flew overnight from the far southwestern Indian Ocean.

This business jet flying from the north is full of Stefanie Sun’s management team. They will begin the inspection and final adjustment of the concert venue and stage sound equipment this morning, in preparation for Stefanie Sun’s rehearsal tomorrow.

In the business jet flying from the Indian Ocean, apart from the flight attendant, there was only one passenger, and this passenger was Zara banks.

Zara banks left for the Maldives yesterday and handled the ownership change of the island with banks butler. After the formalities were completed, she flew back non-stop.

When Zara banks’s business jet stopped at the stand, dozens of Stefanie Sun’s team members in the business jet in front had already left by the airport shuttle bus.

Zara banks got into an off-road vehicle prepared at the airport and headed to the business jet terminal.

When Zara banks finished the entry formalities and walked out of the passage, she happened to meet Stefanie Sun's team members picking up their luggage in the luggage area.

Seeing this group of people's large bags and small bags, as well as various professional flight cases, Zara banks glanced more subconsciously, and then guessed the origin of these people, knowing that they must be Stefanie Sun's team.

However, Zara banks didn't think much, so he planned to bypass them directly to the exit, and then went to the parking building to pick up the car and go home.

Unexpectedly, at this time, a familiar man appeared in his field of vision. This man was her brother Fitz Banks.

At this moment, Fitz Banks rushed in from the outside and came directly to a female leader of Stefanie Sun's team, and smiled diligently: "Oh, a lot! But you are looking forward to it. You are on the plane so early. Have you worked hard all the way?"

girl smiled awkwardly, and asked in surprise, "Why did Master Banks arrive at the airport so early?"

Fitz Banks hurriedly said: "Hurt! I'm not afraid that you will be too hard working all the way, so I want to bring the convoy to pick you up. The convoy is waiting outside and can send you to the hotel anytime!"
