

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3102-3103

Seeing Fits, Zara hurriedly stopped and turned sideways silently so as not to be recognized by him.

At the same time, she quietly looked at Fits twenty or thirty meters away from her corner. Seeing her brother's courageous and flattering look in front of Zuri, she suddenly felt a little sick in her heart.

She suddenly felt that the man of the Banks Family had a very strong purpose in doing anything.

Take her father as an example. The two daughters almost died in his grandfather's hands, but when her grandfather needed him to act as a facade, he was still able to put everything down and return to his grandfather to play the role of a filial son.

In the final analysis, I want to strive for the seat of the Banks Family heir.

In the face of this purpose, the daughter is not that important at all.

As for the elder brother, the same is true.

A few days ago, he had just sat down, the fact that he still stood in line with his grandfather after he and his mother were killed by his grandfather.

From this alone, it can be seen that his pursuit of utilitarianism is comparable to that of his father.

The same is true for Stefanie Sun.

Even with so many things happening at home, his pursuit of Stefanie Sun has never been affected, and there has never been a momentary pause. At the moment, only Stefanie Sun's brokerage team is coming to the airport, but even so, his brother has come in person. Come to greet, from this we can see how diligent he is.

Fits came to pick up Zuri and his entourage early in the morning, just to save the country and to please the people around Stefanie Sun first.

He felt that as long as these people feel that they are good men with good intentions, these people will definitely say good things for themselves in front of Stefanie Sun.

In his opinion, most women seem to be assertive, but in fact there is not much assertiveness and persistence in their bones.

Many girls don't like a man at first, but once people around her are blowing air in her ears, brainwashing her, and constantly saying good things about the man, her heart will change little by little.

And many boys will use this curve to save the country after pursuing girls to no avail, and there are countless successful cases in the market.

Therefore, Fits made a special trip to the airport to show his courtesy to Zuri and other Stefanie Sun team members.

In order to pursue Stefanie Sun, Fits did not bother much during this time.

During this period of time in Aurous Hill, he has been carrying Stefanie Sun's team on his back, paying for his own money and secretly upgrading the hardware for Stefanie Sun's concert this time.

Originally, Stefanie Sun's various equipment configurations for this concert have reached the upper limit of commercial performances, and the cost is so high that it is almost close to the revenue balance line.

And this level of equipment is already the limit of global commercial concerts. Even top singers such as Michael Jackson and Beyoncé will not be higher than this.

But Fits felt that he must let Stefanie Sun feel his own good intentions.

Therefore, he spent money to buy the team responsible for the sound and lighting of the concert and the stage art. With Stefanie Sun's team on his back, he replaced the hardware and equipment such as the sound and lighting of Stefanie Sun's concert with the top level of the Olympic opening ceremony.

The freight for these equipments from overseas by air alone would cost millions, plus the equipment leasing and commissioning costs, the overall cost has exceeded 30 million.

You must know that only tens of thousands of people participate in a concert, and the face price of the performance ranges from one to two thousand to two to three hundred. If you take the median, the per capita ticket price is only one thousand yuan. The box office revenue is only a mere tens of millions.

For any team, it is impossible to spend 30 million to build on-site equipment, because in this way, even if all the concert tickets are sold out, they will lose at least 15 million.

But Fits didn't care.

What he wanted was to use this almost stupid generosity in exchange for Stefanie Sun's favor.

Throwing thirty million dollars, just to make the concert of his sweetheart reach the top international level, Fits himself would be moved by himself, and he felt that this move would definitely win Stefanie Sun's favor.

Moreover, he even thought that if his confession at the concert was unsuccessful, he would find a public relations company to bring the rhythm to the whole network.

By then, as long as the media exposes the fact that he has spent 30 million yuan, and then puts himself in a “infatuated man” character, it will invisibly bring strong psychological pressure to Stefanie Sun.

Sometimes, moral kidnapping is also a good way to pursue the other party.

Zuri, who is like a human being, naturally knows why Fits is so diligent. She hurriedly said to Fits: “Master banks does not have to be so polite. I have communicated with the execution company that Aurous Hill cooperates with before. We have arranged a pick-up vehicle, so we won’t bother you.”
