

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3114-3115

Stefanie Sun immediately said depressed: "He wouldn't be so boring, would he?"

Zuri curled his lips: "Even our staff, he can go to the airport to meet him personally, not to mention you? I guess he has already paid attention to the arrival information of Aurous Hill Airport. Maybe your plane hasn't been there yet. He has already seen the information of departure and route application."

Stefanie Sun thought for a moment and said, "Well, let's do it. Tomorrow, I will use my family's plane to apply for a flight permit that takes off at 11 o'clock in the morning, and put a smoke bomb. You also talk to the on-site staff and say I want the afternoon. I can only arrive at one point, and when I arrive, I go directly to the venue to rehearse, so that Fitz also believes it. Then I rent a business jet and fly over quietly at 8 in the morning."

Zuri hurriedly said: "Why is it so troublesome? Just ask your Charlie to pick you up. When Fitz sees him, he will know that you already have a sweetheart, so you may find yourself in trouble. Return."

"How do you do that?" Stefanie Sun blurted out: " Charlie is still married. If someone knows about me and him, it will be bad for him to spread it out."

Zuri was stunned for a moment, and said helplessly for a moment: "Well...Then I will tell everyone that you will arrive at one o'clock in the afternoon, hoping to fool Fitz."

The next day.

Charlie and Claire got up early in the morning, and their mother-in-law had already cooked breakfast.

While washing, Charlie received a WeChat message from Stefanie Sun and said, " Charlie, I can get to Aurous Hill Airport at nine o'clock and I will be out of the airport gate at ten o'clock. Your time is okay, right?"

Charlie immediately replied with no problem.

Then Stefanie Sun sent another message, stating that I will see you then.

During the meal, Charlie took another look at the time. Claire went out at eight o'clock normally, and drove her to the hotel site of the Emgrand Group, and then went to the airport. Time must be too late.

Claire said to Charlie while eating, "By the way, from today onwards, you don't have to work so hard. You will pick me up every day. I don't think there have been any strange murders in Aurous Hill in the past few days. It's okay."

Before Charlie spoke, Elaine hurriedly said, "Oh, Claire, this kind of thing can be sloppy. Maybe the murderer has been hidden temporarily. You should be more careful. Mom is just your daughter. There must be no mistakes!"

Since joining Tomson, Elaine has basically recognized the reality that her future life will definitely depend on her daughter and son-in-law.

Needless to say, the daughter is gentle, kind and filial to her parents. Although the son-in-law has no choice, he is an outsider after all.

Therefore, on the one hand, she cared about her daughter, and on the other hand, she was also worried. If something went wrong with her daughter, Charlie turned her face and ignored her mother-in-law.

In other words, Claire is the guarantee for her to enjoy a good life.

Although Charlie knew that Jack Yalman's senior brother Master Felix had died, and there would be no such strange murders in Aurous Hill in the future, but in order to reassure his wife and father-in-law and mother-in-law, he took the initiative to speak: "Claire, During this time, let's be more cautious and don't take it lightly, so I'll take you to the construction site for a while."

Claire smiled slightly and said, "After a while, you worked so hard to take me to the old town. I will not go to the Emgrand Group this morning."

Charlie asked curiously: "Why are you going to the old town early in the morning?"

Claire smiled and said: "Group's design work has been completed and construction has started, so now the company is also accepting other design orders. My employee received a new customer in the old city a few days ago. To renovate an old house, the design plan was made by me. I have to go in person and talk to the owner over there."
