

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3124-3125

Charlie said hurriedly, "I don't worry, I will ask now. The story may be at work. It doesn't matter if you ask again at night."

Stefanie Sun waved her hand: " Charlie, who is okay, I have to tell them peace anyway."

After speaking, he clicked the request for video call.

Soon, Orrin Sun turned on the video and asked with a smile: "Stefanie, you have landed in Aurous Hill safely, right?"

Stefanie Sun smiled and said, "Dad, I have arrived. Charlie came to pick me up."

With that, she quickly raised her phone to the right, so that the camera could just capture Charlie who was driving on the left.

When Orrin Sun saw Charlie, he immediately smiled and said, "Oh, Charlie, you have to go to the airport to pick up the daughter!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Uncle Orrin, you are too far-sighted. Your daughter came to Aurous Hill, how can I not come to pick her up."

Orrin Sun smiled and said: "Originally, I and your Aunt Angie planned to go there today, but there is a board of directors on the group's side that is about to open. Today is really hard to get away, so I will go to Aurous Hill with you tomorrow morning to make peace with you. "

"Good Uncle Orrin." Charlie said hurriedly: "Tomorrow, I will come to the airport to pick you up and Aunt Angie together with my daughter."

As he was talking, on the other side of the video, Angie walked into Orrin Sun's office and said, "Mr. sun, everyone is almost there. Come here too."

Orrin Sun smiled and said, "I'm videoing with Stefanie and Charlie. Would you like to talk to Charlie?"

"Really?" Angie said with joy, and hurriedly ran behind Orrin Sun, leaned over and smiled at the camera: "Charlie, tomorrow is your birthday. Auntie wishes you a happy birthday in advance!"

Charlie hurriedly said, "Thank you Aunt Angie!"

Angie regarded Charlie as her son-in-law, even her own son, so she was very close to him in her heart, and said with a smile: "You will not come to Eastcliff this time to see me and your Uncle Orrin, we both miss you. Uncle Orrin talks about you every day in Eastcliff."

Orrin Sun smiled and said, "It's like you didn't talk about it. How do I remember that you talk about it the most?"

Angie smiled and said, "Charlie is in my mind, just like my own son. Is there anything wrong with me being a mother?"

Orrin Sun nodded and said to Charlie: "Look, Charlie, Aunt Angie and I really treat you as their own child. If you have time in the future, you must come to Eastcliff to see us often!"

Charlie agreed without hesitation, and said, "Uncle Orrin, don't worry, I will definitely."

Orrin Sun nodded in satisfaction, and said: "Charlie, Aunt Angie and I are going to convene the board of directors, so let's not talk about it. Let's meet tomorrow!"

When Stefanie Sun heard that her parents were going to the meeting, she hurriedly said: "Mom and dad, don't hang up in a hurry. I haven't shown you the flowers that Charlie gave me!"

After speaking, he quickly switched the cameras and took a picture of the bunch of flowers on his lap.

Angie at the end of the video said with a smile: "Oh, Charlie is really interested in such a big bouquet of roses! I have been with your dad for so many years, and it seems that your dad has never sent me flowers."

Orrin Sun said embarrassingly: "We are all old wives, so how can we pay attention to these?"

Angie gave him a white look and said, "So this is the gap between you and Charlie. Do you think Charlie knows more about romance? Even if it's just picking up the airport, a bunch of roses will be prepared."

Charlie was also very speechless for a while.

Stefanie Sun smiled at this time and said, "Dad, did you hear that? I will learn more from Charlie in the future!"

After finishing speaking, he said contentedly: "Okay, I'm done showing off. Go ahead and hang up!"

After Stefanie Sun hung up the video, Charlie asked her curiously: "now Aunt Angie is also busy with the Sun Group?"

"Yes." Stefanie Sun nodded and said with a smile: "Since my dad recovered, the group has developed as fast as a chicken blood. Many things are too busy, and my dad doesn't particularly believe in my two uncles, so my mom just Go and help him."

After speaking, Stefanie Sun sighed: "My mother is really a strong woman, and she is more dedicated to her work than my dad. In the recent period, she has obviously become a little more haggard than before, which makes people feel distressed."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "After Uncle Orrin and Aunt Angie come tomorrow, I will give them supplementary medicine and eat, which will definitely relieve their health."

Stefanie Sun chuckled and said, "That's great! Charlie, you have such a good recipe, so you can just give me a pair of foods. I have been working hard recently!"
