

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3134-3135

Charlie asked again: "Have you checked back, who on earth wants to check my wife's license plate number?"

Isaac Cameron hurriedly said: "The information found was an old classmate of the person involved in Eastcliff. The other party worked in a company under the name of the Banks Family."

"The Banks Family?" Charlie suddenly realized something, and said: "Then I guess the person who wants to check on me should be Fitz Banks from the Banks Family. I just drove the girl to the performance venue. I guess he should have seen it. ."

Isaac Cameron blurted out: "Damn, the bastard of the Banks Family has always been ill-intentioned with Miss sun. I heard that he organized a luxury convoy to pick up Miss Sun at the airport, but he was completely empty."

After speaking, Isaac Cameron said again: "Master, this Fitz Banks has probably been eyeing you. He wants to check your license plate number. It must be aimed at you. Although Aurous Hill is not in the Banks Family's domain, if the Banks Family is If you want to, you can find a relationship from Eastcliff. I guess it won't be long before he can find you! You must be prepared!"

"Hmm..." Charlie said with a cold face: "Fitz Banks shouldn't see my appearance yet, but since he came to the door, he must take the initiative to attack this matter!"

Having said that, Charlie said again: "Tomorrow night I am going to attend the concert Of Stefanie Sun , if I don't do something with Fitz Banks, I won't be able to avoid meeting him at the concert. Solve this trouble!"

Isaac Cameron hurriedly asked, "Master, what are your plans?"

Charlie sneered and said: "In this way, you first let that person give feedback to Fitz Banks a false information, and the specific information is as I said..."

After all, Charlie informed Isaac Cameron of his plan in detail and asked him to strictly follow the requirements.

Charlie knew very well that he had rescued Zara and Fitz Banks in Japan, so if he really faced Fitz Banks face to face, he would definitely recognize himself.

Therefore, instead of waiting for him to recognize himself at the concert tomorrow, it is better to take the initiative to solve him.

Originally, I didn't want to attack him. After all, everyone has the right to pursue their favorite objects. I can't do it on him simply because he likes Stefanie Sun. After all, he is not as arrogant and arrogant as Rishab. .

But this time the situation is completely different.

This Fitz Banks was so bold that he dared to let people check his wife's license plate number!

His behavior alone has clearly played the world!

Now that you have crossed the boundary, don't blame yourself for being rude!

Fitz Banks sat in his Rolls Royce due to a very bad mood and did not get out of the car for a long time.

Even though Stefanie Sun's rehearsal singing soon came from the stadium, he still sat motionless in the car.

At this time, he was extremely unhappy.

The reason that made him unhappy was that on the one hand, Stefanie Sun's deliberate avoidance of herself, on the other hand, was the unidentified BMW driver.

And he didn't understand why Stefanie Sun would condescend to take a cheap BMW to the stadium.

After all, a brand like BMW, in the second-generation circle of Eastcliff, is simply rubbish that no one touches.

Like their top rich second-generation, the advanced customized version of Rolls-Royce is basically the standard for travel.

A car of this class like BMW is not even a fart in front of the high-end custom Rolls-Royce.

Seeing that more than ten or twenty minutes have passed, and his subordinates haven't fed back the information of the BMW car, he couldn't help being a little annoyed. When he was about to call and scold him, the phone suddenly received a call from his subordinates. phone.

Fitz Banks immediately connected the phone and yelled: "Let you fucking check the license plate, where did you check it for me? I haven't responded for so long?!"

The other party hurriedly said: "Master calmed down. The people over there just reported that there was a problem with the system, and it was just handled. The car you want to check has already got results."

Fitz Banks hurriedly asked: "What is the result? Who is the owner of that car?!"

The other party replied: "Master, the BMW car you asked me to check is a car registered under the name of Aurous Hill Emgrand Group."

"Emgrand Group?" Fitz Banks couldn't help frowning.

He has been in Aurous Hill during this period, but he has some understanding of the situation in Aurous Hill.

The largest local company in Aurous Hill is the Emgrand Group, but the owner of this group is mysterious, and Fitz Banks does not know who this company belongs to.

So, he was a little surprised at once, and blurted out: "Is the news true?"
