

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3138-3139

Fitz Banks never dreamed that the news he heard through his subordinates was actually a game that Charlie deliberately asked Isaac Cameron to play.

He deliberately revealed his identity as the “Chairman of the Emgrand Group” to Fitz Banks, just to make Fitz Banks have a sense of urgency, so as to completely divert Fitz Banks’s attention.

Otherwise, if Fitz Banks has been making a fuss about his wife’s BMW car, he will soon get his wife’s true identity.

Therefore, he deliberately let people feed back a false message, telling the other party that this car belongs to the Emgrand Group. At the same time, in order to strengthen Fitz Banks’s trust, he deliberately exposed the details of the BMW 760 which is actually a BMW 760. In this way, naturally Fitz Banks can be convinced.

Once Fitz Banks believed that this car belonged to the Emgrand Group, Fitz Banks’s attention was completely deflected by himself.

Then he released the chairman of the Emgrand Group. He may be a handsome, young and rich young man, and is related to the god-level wealthy people circulating on the Internet. Then he will believe in all this even more.

As Charlie expected, Fitz Banks’s current attention was focused on the chairman of the Emgrand Group.

While asking people to meet with Doris Young of the Emgrand Group, he took out his mobile phone and searched for the short video of the god-level rich man who was all the rage in Aurous Hill. Sure enough, he found the scene where Charlie was photographed at video.

However, it is a pity that the shooting angle of that video is not good, and the distance is relatively far, so he can’t see Charlie’s appearance, but Charlie’s figure can see a clearer outline, and he is 1.85 meters tall. Charlie, who weighed less than one hundred and forty catties, had a body comparable to those long-legged Obamas in the popular entertainment industry, which made Fitz Banks jealous.

Fitz Banks is most dissatisfied with his height. Although he is already 1.75 meters tall. Among men, his height is considered to be above average, even two or three centimeters higher than the popular national husband at the beginning, but he is still in his bones. Some dissatisfaction, because he only accounted for the rich and handsome in the three words Gao Fu Shuai, if you want to occupy the “high” also, at least 1.8 meters or more.

Therefore, when Charlie’s height in the video was about 1.85 meters, and he was ten centimeters higher than him, Fitz Banks felt quite upset.

At this time, Fitz Banks's assistant ran out of the stadium and knocked on Fitz Banks's car window.

Fitz Banks opened the central control lock, and the assistant hurriedly pulled the car door and got into the co-pilot. He asked, "Master, Miss Sun has already started the rehearsal. Don't you want to go in and take a look?"

"Don't go!" Fitz Banks waved his hand irritably, and said, "Hurry up and make an appointment with that Doris Young. I'm going to see her!"

"Okay." The assistant nodded and said: "I have asked someone to inquire about Doris Young's contact information just now, and it is estimated that I will be able to reply in a while."

Just finished speaking, the phone immediately received a text message.

In the text message, there is a string of mobile phone numbers starting with 139.

The assistant hurriedly said: "Master, the call has been sent, I will call her now!"

Fitz Banks gave an absent-minded hum, still staring at the phone screen, Charlie's figure in the short video.

At the same time, his assistant had put the call on Doris Young's cell phone.

This person did not go around on the phone, and directly reported to Doris Young about his family, saying: "Hello, Deputy Director Doris of the Emgrand Group, right? I am the assistant of Mr. Fitz Banks, the young master of the Banks Family of Eastcliff. Our young master wants to talk to Emgrand. The group talks about cooperation. I wonder if You has time to meet with our young master?"
