

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3142-3143

Twenty minutes later.

Fitz Banks's motorcade drove into the underground garage of Emgrand Group.

Doris Young has arranged in advance for her secretary and the person in charge of the security department of Emgrand Group to wait in the underground garage.

As soon as the convoy arrived, they immediately stepped forward to receive them respectfully, and then took Fitz Banks and his entourage from the special elevator in the underground garage to the top floor of the Emgrand Building.

Fitz Banks really enjoys the feeling of holding the moon among stars. In his opinion, a company of 100 billion yuan in the Emgrand Group should be like the present when facing himself, the young master of the Banks family. To the next are all respectful.

Doris Young's female secretary led the way and said as she walked: "Master Banks, our deputy Doris Young is waiting for your visit in the office, but her office is not too big, so your entourage will work hard. The meeting room next to it will take a break, and I will ask someone to arrange tea for them."

Fitz Banks nodded lightly.

He also didn't want to bring a lot of people into the other party's office to talk about things.

Moreover, he didn't feel that he would be dangerous if he came to a group with a market value of hundreds of billions.

So he said to his assistant: "You go to the conference room and wait for me."

The assistant nodded immediately and said, "Good master!"

Fitz Banks's assistant and bodyguard were introduced into the meeting room, and Doris Young's female secretary brought Fitz Banks to Doris Young's office alone.

The female secretary knocked on the door, and Doris Young personally opened the door to the office. Seeing Fitz Banks, she respectfully said: "Hello Master Banks, I am Doris Young, Vice Chairman of Emgrand Group. Welcome your visit, let us The Emgrand Group is shining!"

Fitz Banks did not expect that Doris Young of the Emgrand Group was such a beautiful and charming lady-like beauty. Seeing her wearing a professional suit with a knee-length skirt and her slightly curly long wavy hair, he was a bit stunned for a while.

Originally in his imagination, since this Doris Young could use her own efforts to become the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group step by step, she would also be at least thirty-five or even over forty years old.

After all, it takes time and experience to advance in the workplace. No one would believe that a woman under the age of thirty can rely on her strength to become the second-in-chief of a company with a market value of 100 billion yuan.

Because of this fixed thinking mode in his heart, the moment he saw Doris Young, he felt amazing.

So, he also nodded very gentlemanly and said: "I didn't expect Vice Doris Young to be so young and to become the second-in-chief of a company at such a young age. To come to Young, his personal ability must be extraordinary."

Doris Young smiled humbly, and said humbly, "Master Banks, you've been awarded."

After that, she hurriedly turned sideways and said, "Master Banks, please come in!"

"Okay!" Fitz Banks nodded, and strode into Doris Young's office.

Doris Young said to her secretary: "Go and prepare the best tea for Master Banks."

The secretary hurriedly said: "Good Deputy Doris Young!"

After the secretary left, Doris Young immediately invited Fitz Banks into his office and invited him to sit down on the sofa. Then he asked politely: "I wonder why Master Banks came to our Emgrand Group?"

Fitz Banks smiled and said: "I have been in Aurous Hill for this period of time, and I am interested in making some investment in Aurous Hill. I heard that your Emgrand Group is the largest enterprise in Aurous Hill, so I want to cooperate with you."

With that said, Fitz Banks also deliberately added: "Oh, yes, the 'one point' cooperation I said is at least 50 billion yuan in scale."
