

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3162-3163

The assistant was a little confused, but he didn't know exactly what Fitz Banks saw in the VIP passage of the stadium. Maybe it was Fitz Banks who made a mistake by himself, so he didn't think too much. He said: "Good young master, then we will send you back now."

Along the way, Fitz Banks did not speak, but sat in the car alone with his eyes closed.

The convoy sent him to Thorn's old house. Fitz Banks spoke to the assistant before getting off the car and said: "Okay, you guys go to do your own business, don't worry about me, I want to go home and take a good rest."

The assistant didn't think much, and hurriedly opened the door to Fitz Banks and watched Fitz Banks enter the old house of thorn's house. Then he greeted others to drive away.

When Fitz Banks returned home, only the servant was at home. The servant greeted him without paying attention, so he went straight back to his room and locked himself up.

The servant thought he might be in a bad mood and didn't take it too seriously, let alone touch him.

In the evening, Deana and Zara banks went home one after another. The servant told them that Fitz Banks had locked himself in the room in the afternoon and never left the door. The mother and daughter respectively knocked at the door and asked, The reply to them is that I want to be alone.

The family didn't take it seriously.

After all, Fitz Banks is an adult, and sometimes it is normal to want to be alone.

However, at nine o'clock in the evening, when Fitz Banks pushed the door out of the room, he gathered the whole family solemnly, and said with a serious face that he had something to announce.

When the family sat down in the living room and wanted to hear what he had to announce, he took out his mobile phone and sent a video invitation to Lord Banks.

Zara banks was a little unhappy when he saw him sending a video to his grandfather, and asked: "Brother, why do you want to video with grandpa?"

Fitz Banks said seriously: "I have a major decision about myself to be announced, so I also want to inform Grandpa at the same time."

Zara banks said with a black face, "Then you don't want to take pictures of me and my mother too."

Fitz Banks nodded, and sat a little further away.

Soon, the video was connected.

Lord Banks asked at the end of the video: "Knowing Fitz, how come you send me the video at this time?"

Fitz Banks said calmly: "Grandpa, I have a major decision, and I need to tell you."

Lord Banks was confused, but nodded, and said, "Is there any major decision, you can talk about it."

Fitz Banks sat up straight and said seriously: "I Fitz Banks, after careful consideration, I deeply believe that my father and grandpa are sinful people, so I decided to start at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning. I kowtow all the way to the Jokhang Temple by kowtow to repay the sins of the Banks Family. I don't know how long this trip will take. If I can kowtow all the way to the Jokhang Temple in three years, I will come back and continue to do it again Head, for three years!"

Deana and Zara banks were naturally dumbfounded.

And Lord Banks at the other end of the video, his face is already extremely ugly!

He cursed in his heart: "Did this stinky kid got kicked by a donkey?! Say I am guilty?! Even if my damn sin is so guilty, I don't need you to knock on any long head to pay for me! You damn it. Deliberately want to make me ashamed?!"

Thinking of this, he yelled with a dark face: "Fitz Banks! You are just fooling around! Don't forget your identity! You are the eldest son of the Banks Family! As the eldest grandson of the Banks Family, you are not busy studying and working. , Don't take the Banks Family's interests as the highest interest, but instead want to engage in this kind of brain-dead thing, where do you let the Banks Family's face go?! Where do you let my face go?!"

Fitz Banks was unmoved by Lord Banks's roar, and said indifferently: "I have decided! No one can block my decision! I will set off on time tomorrow morning at seven o'clock, then I will ask the whole country. Of netizens supervise me!"
