

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3182-3183

Originally, the family was happily waiting for the arrival of twelve o'clock, but Jacob didn't expect that he didn't hold back his mood and made a show of it, and Elaine would take away all his future income.

While he was heartbroken deep in his heart, he also began to reflect on why he repeatedly fell in front of Elaine.

He discovered that Elaine has this ability. It seems simple-minded, only relying on a shameless and violent energy, but in fact, Elaine can always find the most accurate point in himself, and give himself to him all at once. Hold tightly.

Thinking back to the married life for more than 20 years, Jacob felt desperate. For more than 20 years, he had failed to win in front of Elaine, and had been eaten by Elaine for half of his life. There was no room for resistance at all.

Seeing Jacob, Charlie was a little sad, while Elaine looked smug and sighed silently. He felt more and more that his old husband could not support the wall with mud.

This timid and fearful middle-aged man has limited ability, limited ability, and can't hide things in his heart, and he is especially easy to be complacent. The bigger problem is that he has always lacked courage. According to this view, he is afraid that he will be inevitable in his life. nightmare.

Claire also noticed that his father was depressed, and quickly turned away from the subject, and said to Charlie: "By the way, my mother said that when her legs get better, I want you to take her to experience the yachting. I don't know if it's not convenient for you.?"

"It's convenient." Charlie agreed casually, and said, "When Mom's legs are better and the weather is warmer, let's go out to sea."

When Elaine heard this, her eyebrows were instantly pleased, and she kept saying: "Oh, that's really great! I'm so old that I haven't been on a private yacht yet!"

The happy Elaine blurted out again: "By the way, let's sail out to sea, can we go all the way south and go to the South Island for a round?!"

Charlie nodded and said, "No problem. It's not far from the estuary to the South China Sea. If it's more, it's only 2,000 kilometers. If you are on a yacht, you can get there in two or three days at most."

Elaine suddenly became excited and clapped his hands and said, "It's great, great! I have never been to the South China Sea. In the winter a few years ago, Mrs. was going to the South China Sea to spend the winter openly, but she only took it every time. Mmr Wilson went with their family and never let us follow. When I think about it, I get angry!"

After speaking, Elaine began to take out his mobile phone and studied the famous scenic spots and delicacies in the South China Sea.

The family chatted freely, and the time had come to 12 o'clock in the morning.

At 11:59 a.m., Claire began to take out her mobile phone to count the seconds silently. At 12 o'clock exactly, she put down her mobile phone and said softly to Charlie who was sitting next to her, "Husband, twelve. Click it, happy birthday to you!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Thank you, wife!"

Elaine also hurriedly agreed: "Happy birthday, my good son-in-law! Mom wishes you great fortune and great fortune in the future!"

Jacob was a little bit depressed, but still cheered up and said, "Charlie, Dad wishes you a happy birthday, every year you have today, and every year you have the present!"

Charlie thanked the old friends one by one, and the phone began to vibrate constantly, receiving dozens of text messages and WeChat in a row.

He turned on the phone and saw that many friends sent messages of blessings to him at this time point. Needless to say, Isaac Cameron, Don Albert, and Mr Qin, Jasmin, Arrora, Yang doris, and Ito Nanako also sent their wishes. Happy birthday message for him.

In addition, Orrin and his wife, Deana and Zara banks mother and daughter, Hank and Ziva Hank father and daughter also sent messages of blessings.

Charlie didn't expect that even Wendy sent a blessing text message and thanked Charlie for helping her during this time.

However, the one person Charlie didn't expect most was his grandfather Lord banks.

Even his sixtieth old man kept at 12 o'clock and sent a message on time to wish him a happy birthday, but Charlie didn't expect it.

And his aunt, Cynthia Wade, who has been suffering in front of him, even sent a message, wishing Charlie a happy birthday, and at the same time apologizing for her previous actions, hoping to be forgiven by Charlie.

Claire was surprised to see that Charlie was constantly receiving all kinds of information. She didn't look at the content of the information. She just guessed that the people who sent the information should be Charlie's customers.

Elaine, who was sitting opposite, saw that Charlie was constantly receiving various messages. He couldn't help but smile and said with emotion: "Oh, my dear son-in-law, your popularity is really good now. There are so many people. Keep your birthday at 12 o'clock. They should all be your customers, so it seems that your business this year will definitely be better than last year!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Actually, they are all old customers. It's just that they have become friends with them after a long time."

With that said, Charlie replied thank you one by one to all the people who sent the message. Even Cynthia Wade, he politely replied the two words thank you.

Afterwards, he said to Jacob and Elaine: "Parents, it's too Late. Please go back to your room and rest early."

Elaine nodded and yawned: "Oh, I'm really a little sleepy. I can't stand it at this age."

After speaking, she turned to Jacob and said, "Help me and take me back to the room."
