

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3192-3193

Charlie didn't say anything to Orrin Sun. He just felt that it was a bit of a waste for him to suddenly give himself a private plane.

And this is not an ordinary small private jet worth tens of millions or one or two hundred million. This is a private jet modified from a Boeing 737 passenger plane.

The ex-factory price of a Boeing 737 ordinary airliner is about 100 million US dollars, but this is only an ordinary airliner. For private jets, an ordinary airliner is equivalent to a blank room, and the cost of the renovation and decoration of this blank room , At least accounted for more than half of the total value.

Calculated in this way, the value of this aircraft alone would be around one billion yuan.

Charlie was indeed a little ashamed to receive such a valuable gift for his birthday.

Seeing that he seemed to hesitate, Orrin Sun stepped forward and took his shoulders and said earnestly: "Charlie, in my Orrin Sun's mind, you are just like my son. You now have your own career, and you often need to It's much more convenient for you to have your own private jet flying back and forth across the country and even around the world."

Charlie said seriously: "Uncle Sun, in fact, the Wade family also has a spare private jet in Aurous Hill. Generally speaking, it is enough for me. I really don't want you to spend too much money."

Orrin Sun said with a very firm expression: "The Wade Family's private jet belongs to the Wade Family. The plane that your uncle gave you is your own. Does it feel like using your own things with other people's things? Besides, you are now The relationship between the Wade Family is not clear. If you have an awkward relationship with your grandfather one day, then use his plane again, wouldn't it be a dwarf?"

As he said, Orrin Sun said again: "Besides, what is there to be polite about you and your uncle? It's just a plane, which is only 1 billion at best. I'm a person who almost died once. There is so much money and nowhere to spend it. It's also very painful."

Angie on the side also hurriedly agreed: "Yes, Charlie, you can accept it happily, don't look back at your uncle age, give you a birthday gift, and you have to ask you to accept it."

When Charlie heard this, he immediately realized that he was indeed a little too outspoken.

The more expensive the gift, the more important it is to Uncle and his wife. If they shirk repeatedly, it will hurt their feelings.

So he nodded immediately and said, "Thank you Uncle and Aunt . From now on, I will also have a private jet, Charlie!"

As soon as Orrin Sun heard this, he laughed suddenly, shook the big hand on Charlie's shoulder, and said with a smile: "Go! Go to the restaurant!"

Charlie invited Orrin Sun and his wife to sit in the back row of his BMW 760, and then opened the door of the co-pilot for Stefanie Sun. Before he finally got into the car, he told Isaac Cameron: let your car be in front. Open the way, let's go directly to Heaven Springs now."

Charlie had already agreed with Don Albert before that he was going to entertain guests at Heaven Springs today, so the entire Heaven Springs was not open for business today.

Don Albert also turned away everything at hand and rushed to Heaven Springs as a supervisor early in the morning.

From the security work and service process of the entire Heaven Springs to the freshness of every dish, raw materials and tableware to be prepared today, Don Albert basically inspected everything in advance more than once.

When Isaac Cameron opened the road ahead and led Charlie to leave the airport together, Isaac Cameron had already informed Don Albert of the news.

Don Albert immediately asked all the service personnel to line up in the parking lot at the entrance of Heaven Springs to prepare for the welcome. At the same time, he also ordered many younger brothers to guard both sides of the entrance, and asked them not to let any other people in.

After all, Stefanie Sun, who is with Charlie, is one of the hottest stars in the country today. If her meal in Heaven Springs is revealed, she will be on the gossip news immediately. Don Albert is extremely loyal to Charlie, so naturally he will not. willing Leave any hidden dangers to Charlie.

When the convoy drove into the parking lot, Don Albert led a group of waiters waiting at the door.
