

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3196-3197

When Don Albert heard Charlie say that he should prepare pure water, he immediately said, "Master Wade, do you want me to soak some good Mingqian Longjing and send it over?"

They were all picked from Southaven just two days ago and sent to Aurous Hill. Yes, very good."

Don Albert obviously didn't know why Charlie asked himself to prepare pure water, so Charlie smiled slightly, waved his hand and said,

"Don't be so troublesome, just prepare pure water directly."

After that, Charlie said again: "Oh, by the way, help me prepare a fruit knife."

Although Don Albert didn't know why, he immediately nodded and said, "Okay Master Wade, I will prepare now, and I will deliver it right away!"

Orrin Sun and his wife and Stefanie Sun also didn't understand why Charlie wanted pure water and a fruit knife, but they didn't even ask.

Immediately, Charlie smiled and said, "Uncle Orrin (Sun), Aunt Angie, and her daughter, let's take a seat first!"

"Okay!" Orrin Sun laughed and said, "Charlie, today is your birthday. Uncle is so happy. We have to drink two glasses of everything!"

Charlie nodded without hesitation and said, "No problem, Uncle Orrin (Sun)! I'll accompany you as much as I drink!"

After all, he took the initiative, opened a bottle of Moutai, and poured two cups for himself and Orrin Sun.

Stefanie Sun also hurriedly opened the Romani Conti red wine, slowly poured it into the decanter, and said to Charlie: "Charlie, I still have a show at night, so I can't drink too much. I will respect you and your parents. I won't drink too much for a cup, and if I have a chance after the show, I'll accompany you to drink more!"

Charlie smiled and said, "It doesn't matter, drinking more will not delay your business."

Stefanie Sun sticks out her tongue: "The performance at night is so important. I don't dare to make any mistakes.

If I drink too much and go crazy on the stage, the jokes don't matter. The key is that if the performance is ruined, it will be over."

Charlie patted his chest and promised: , you just believe me and drink as much as you want. With me, you will never influence any business affairs."

Stefanie Sun hesitated for a moment, but when she thought that Charlie never said irresponsible things, she nodded and said, "Okay, then I'll just listen to you. If I delay the show or make a joke, I'll be drunk. You won't go anymore."

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "Just put ten thousand hearts on you."

Stefanie Sun asked Angie next to him again: "Mom, would you like to drink some red bar too?"

Angie smiled and said, "Of course I have to drink something like Charlie's birthday."

After finishing speaking, she looked at Charlie and said apologetically: "Charlie, Auntie's condition is a little bit tired recently, and the amount of alcohol may not be as good as usual. If you drink less, you will have to wait more.

Charlie nodded and asked with concern: "Aunt Angie, your poor condition is due to your recent work, right?"

Orrin Sun on the side said with emotion: "Yes! Since I eliminated the threats inside and outside the group, your Aunt Angie has been helping me with company affairs. Although my two brothers are much more honest, after the previous things,

I It's also difficult to trust them 100%, so I don't dare to give them important work.

Now I am suffering from no trusted staff, so your Aunt Angie will have to work harder."

After speaking, he looked at Angie and thanked him: "My wife, it's been really hard for you during this time."

Angie smiled and said sincerely: "What's the hard work of this, as long as you are in good health and your career is going smoothly, I can rest assured."

After speaking, Angie said again: "I myself am younger than you, so much work is nothing."

Stefanie Sun hurriedly said: "Mom, after my concert is over, I will go back to help you and dad. I will work hard at that time to make it easier for you!"

Angie smiled and said: "That's really great. When the time comes, our family of three will cooperate, and your dad and I will definitely be able to relax a lot."

At this moment, there was a knock on the door, and Charlie said, "Come in!"

As soon as the voice fell, Don Albert dragged a delicate tray with one hand, and walked in by pushing the door with the other.
