

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3244-3245

Wandy didn't expect that the belt she wanted to buy for Charlie would actually anger grandma again.

When I saw my grandmother's temperament that I must take care of everything and do everything, she became angry and blurted out: "Every penny I spend now is earned by my own hard work.

What do I want to buy? , Is my freedom, you have no right to interfere!"

"What?!"

I don't have the right to interfere?!" The old Lady Wilson just ate at Charlie's place, and was stunned by Charlie in all sorts of ways.

She was very depressed. Seeing that Wandy even dared to talk back to herself. ignited her anger.

Immediately, she stopped and angrily said: "Don't forget, this family has always been my master.

It used to be, it is, and it will be in the future! The family is now the most difficult time, every penny is spent On the blade!

You are so extravagant and wasteful that you are disregarding the life and death of our family!"

Wandy felt aggrieved and said angrily: "You used to be the master of everything because you controlled everything in the family, but everything in the family was lost in your hands!

Now everything is back to nothing, I'm starting from scratch, I Why do you want to make your hard-earned money?"

Wandy became more and more angry, her voice improved a little, and she said, "From now on, I will be the master of my affairs alone!

As for the money I earn, I will give you a part of your living expenses, as well as my dad and me.

Brother's rehabilitation costs, every penny left is at my discretion, and you have no right to interfere!"

Old Lady Wilson was mad, and gritted her teeth and accused: "It's really against you!

Do you want to learn from that unscrupulous Claire and turn your face with me?!"

Wandy said with tears in her eyes: "It's okay to learn from my sister, she doesn't listen to you, but she is much happier now than me!"

As she said, she said in a very strong tone: "I have said everything that should be said.

If you are willing to accept it, then follow me.

From now on, I will pay you monthly living expenses, and you don't care about the rest.

I have no authority, but if you don't accept it, then I'll go out to rent a house tomorrow.

If it's not possible, I can still sleep in the company.

The office of the company's general manager is very large, so putting a bed is not a problem!

Seeing Wandy's decisive attitude, the old lady was panicked, and blurted out: "Oh, Wandy, what are you talking about..."

Our family of four has finally come to this day. We have suffered from all kinds of hardships and waves. I've seen it, how can I just leave it alone?"

Speaking of this, she immediately promised:

"Wandy, don't worry, grandma will never interfere with your personal decision in the future.

You can make money outside with peace of mind, and grandma will take care of the rest of the family's affairs!"

Wandy said immediately: "Okay! Then it's settled!"

Old Mrs. Wilson said busy: "Well, it's a deal, it's a deal!"

After speaking, she hurriedly smiled, and stepped forward and asked: "By the way, how much will you pay me for living expenses in the next month?"

You said that I am getting older and I have to take some good health supplements.

The food standard says that everything should be a little bit more. Or else, you give me 6,000 yuan a month, which is considered to be the living expenses of me and your dad and your brother

In addition, you give me another 2,000 yuan. As the cost of rehabilitation for your father and your brother, a total of 8,000 per month, what do you think?"

Wandy naturally knew that the standard of living expenses for one month, three people, and eight thousand yuan was a bit too high.

However, she didn't bother to care too much about Mrs. Wilson. After all, as long as Mrs. Wilson was willing to give up the idea of controlling her, it was already a huge victory.

As for the 8,000 yuan, although it is a little more, the company's income is very good now, and I already earn more than 10,000 yuan a month.
