

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3250-3251

Wandy asked in turn: "Then tell yourself, why did Charlie send our mother to the black coal kiln?"

Harold Wilson was speechless.

In fact, he was also very clear in his heart that at the beginning this incident was due to the fact that his parents were unruly towards Charlie's family.

It was they who had combined with others to set off Elaine, but he did not expect to be cracked by Charlie.

So, in the final analysis, mother's affairs can be regarded as self-inflicted, and it doesn't make sense to wash the floor by herself.

Wandy said at this time: "Brother, you are almost 30 years old. Don't look at problems like a child until now.

You have to distinguish right from wrong and recognize reality!"

With that said, Wandy said with a bit of sadness: "Our family has long been different from what it used to be. Now in this situation, when you and dad recover, both of you will definitely have to find a job and support your family.

If you are still so immature and still lack the right and wrong view, how will you gain a foothold when you come to society?

You will also have a family in the future, also have a career, and have children to pass on from generation to generation!

You can't always be as confused as you are now, right? "

Wandy's words directly touched on the deepest pain point in Harold Wilson's heart.

He also knows very well that he has always been nothing more than a straw bag, what he can't do, and what he eats is not enough.

In the past, with the aura of the Wilson family on his head, he was not worried about eating and drinking, and he could barely be regarded as a rich second generation.

But now, everything is back to zero.

In the future, I don't have any aura to rely on, and I don't have any backing to let myself sit and eat the sky.

If you continue to be so confused, it is likely to be the same as those who can't find a target in their 40s and 50s, and waste a lifetime.

He suddenly thought of Wan's movie called Mr. Tree. The character played by Wang seemed to be a bit magical realism, but in real life, you can often see such people.

It can even be said that there are everywhere. such a man.

Poor, pathetic, and hopeless.

Thinking of this, Harold Wilson's heart suddenly felt very uncomfortable. Only then did he realize that he could not see where his future was, and his future was bleak.

He thought desperately: "My younger sister now has a career with Charlie's help, and it is also a career with a bright future..."

"But what about me?"

"The Wilson Group is gone. After I recover, what can I do?"

"I haven't learned any professional skills or skills, and I have never looked for a job outside. I don't even have a handy resume.

How can I find a job in the future? What kind of job do I look for?"

"Will I just be eliminated by society?!"

"And I'm so old, I don't even have a target, and now I can't do it at home. If I can't even find a decent job, how can I find a target? If I really have been bachelor, I will be 40 years old.

I have never had a chance to stand up in my life..."

The more Harold Wilson thought about it, the more despair he became. When the despair reached the extreme, he couldn't help it. He cried all by himself, and choked up while crying: "What can I do from now on, I..."

Seeing Harold Wilson's appearance, Christopher on the side sighed and said, "Okay, don't talk about it. Your mother was really at fault in the first place.

Elaine lost at the gaming table. So much money, if this matter really goes to the police station, then the large amount of money involved is enough for me and your mother to sit through the prison, so in the final analysis, Charlie can be regarded as leaving us some leeway... .."

After finishing speaking, he looked at Harold Wilson and said with comfort: "Harold, don't be crying and crying like a girl.

When you are in good health, go to a class seriously. It's really impossible. We can also make thousands of dollars a month for delivering express delivery and food delivery together.

As long as we are willing to endure hardship and work harder, we can always find a way to survive!"

Harold Wilson cried and nodded.

At this time, Christopher said again: "When the time comes, save some money for yourself, dad also help you save some, and ask your sister to help you, make up a few hundred thousand beauties, and ask someone to tell you a daughter-in-law. Anyway, I can leave a queen for our family!"
