

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3252-3253

Christopher's words did not really comfort Harold Wilson.

On the contrary, what he said was too pragmatic, and suddenly made Harold Wilson full of despair about the future life.

He has always been pretentious and always feels that he will be a great man in the future, and even his future wife must be a good first-class woman.

Not only must he have a top-notch look, a perfect body, but also a strong family background and An extraordinary background.

That's why he pursued girls with all his heart, and wanted to become the son-in-law of the Rich family.

But now, his father's words made him realize that he will have absolutely nothing to do with a woman rich fmly in the future.

I am afraid that my future self can only be a blue-collar worker who makes money by doing coolies, and I am afraid that it will be difficult for the future self to find a favorite object, and may even rely on a high gift to marry a wife home.

Following this blueprint to conceive of his future, Harold Wilson felt that his future was simply bleak, just like falling into a black hole.

As a result, he cried more fiercely.

When he cried like this, Christopher felt very painful in his heart.

He wanted to help his son, but he knew very well that his future would not be much easier than his son.

The only good thing is that he has at least been married and has a pair of children, and if Harold Wilson doesn't work hard, he may not even get married in the future.

As a result, he couldn't help but sigh, and his whole person was much more decadent.

Wandy felt the extreme depression of the two, rubbed her temples, and said, "I went to the kitchen to cook."

After that, he fled and walked out of the bedroom quickly.

Originally, she wanted to find a chance to put the belt given to Charlie in the mailbox at the door of his house, but when she thought of her current downturn, she couldn't help but feel a strong sense of inferiority in her heart.

After thinking about it, she decided to go to the store tomorrow to return the belt, and from now on, she will work hard to make money.

At the same time, Charlie returned to the villa living room, and his wife and father-in-law were still busy in the kitchen.

The old lady Wilson was making noise at the gate of the courtyard just now, and they didn't hear any sound at all, which also made Charlie breathe a sigh of relief.

However, with today's appearance, the old Lady Wilson, Christopher and Harold Wilson will definitely disappear completely in the future.

This family, Wendy can be regarded as knowing a mistake and can correct it, and Charlie helped her with a small effort, which is also regarded as benevolent.

As for the remaining three people in the Wilson family, Charlie didn't want to talk to them at all, as long as he didn't make trouble, it didn't matter whether he was alive or dead.

In half an afternoon, Claire and his parents cooked a large table of sumptuous delicacies.

When Claire went to int, a total of twelve dishes of all kinds were placed on the dinner table.

Charlie really didn't expect that the three of them would cook so many dishes. They were surprised and said, "Claire, Dad, Mom. There are only four of us. Is it too wasteful to cook so many dishes? It's so hard to cook so many dishes."

Claire wiped the sweat from his forehead, and said with a smile: "The food is too much, but it doesn't look too much when you eat it, and it's for you to prepare a birthday dinner. Naturally, it should be a little grander, and there is no talk at all. Hard work."

Jacob smiled and said, "Charlie, let's have a drink?"

Charlie nodded and said, "Of course I have to accompany you for a couple of drinks. I'll go to the storage room to get wine."

Elaine hurriedly said: "Charlie, bring a bottle of red wine by the way, Claire and I will also accompany you to drink some."

"Okay." Charlie agreed and asked Claire: "Wife. Can you drink it?"

Claire nodded and smiled and said, "You can't drink but you want to drink, but if we both drink, we won't be able to drive after we go to the concert."
