

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3258-3259

Elaine gave him a white look and muttered: "The 75-degree antiseptic alcohol smells even higher, if you don't believe me, try it!"

"What do you know." Jacob murmured, and quickly picked up the cup to pour Charlie and himself.

Elaine also knew that talking too much about Jacob would also destroy the atmosphere, so he didn't say much, but took the red wine from Charlie's hand and took the initiative to open it with a wine cork.

A family of four filled the wine, Claire took out the cake again, and said to Charlie: "Husband, you first blow the candles and make a wish, and then we will eat again!"

Charlie smiled and nodded. This is the standard procedure for birthdays. It is like this at noon and it is still like this at night.

This is basically the same as gatherings of classmates and colleagues. No matter which city, the process of gathering is generally to eat first and then KTV.

Therefore, when Claire took out the cake from the refrigerator and lit the candles, Charlie prepared to make a wish and blow the candles.

Claire on the side also sang a happy birthday song for Charlie. Her voice was not loud, but she was very gentle. With big eyes, she watched Charlie sing out: "Happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you... .."

Charlie acquiesced to his wishes in Claire's singing and blew out the candles.

Afterwards, Claire said: "My husband, close your eyes, I have a gift for you!"

Charlie nodded and closed his eyes gently.

Claire took out a gift box from behind, held it in both hands, put it in Charlie's hand, and said with a smile: "Okay, open your eyes!"

Charlie looked down, and what was in his hand turned out to be a watch box.

A simple line of English letters was written on the box, Charlie recognized at a glance, it turned out to be Patek Philippe.

He looked at Claire in surprise, and said: "Wife, why do you buy me such an expensive gift?"

Claire replied with shame: "It's not expensive, open it and see if you like it or not!"

Charlie nodded and opened the package, inside which was lying quietly a Patek Philippe Nautilus watch.

At this time, Claire said softly from the side: "This Nautilus, in Patek Philippe, is considered an entry-level style. After I have completed the Emgrand Group's projects and settled all the upstream and downstream payments, I will buy it for you. A better piece!"

Charlie hurriedly said: "My good wife, a Nautilus now has a price increase of at least half a million, right? The price of the current watch is too outrageous, so don't buy me such an expensive watch in the future. A good mechanical watch is not as accurate as the time on the phone."

Claire smiled and said, "How can it be the same? Men wear watches not to see the time. It is mainly a kind of temperament. Nowadays, men who are more careful have several watches, attending different occasions and matching different clothes. I also have to choose a different watch.

I don't want my husband to be pricked when going out in the future, especially your customers are rich people who always see that you don't even wear a watch.

I definitely feel that my wife is reluctant to buy it for you! "

Charlie couldn't help but feel moved when he heard this, and said with a smile, "Thank you, wife! My wife is the most considerate."

Elaine, who was on the side, heard the tongue stunned and exclaimed: "Goodbye, just such a watch, it costs more than half a million if its appearance is not good?!"

Claire said earnestly: "Mom, this is a classic model. Not only is it expensive in China, but it's the same all over the world."

Elaine touched her heart and said, "This is a BMW car worn on the wrist!"

Claire smiled and said, "If you say so, there is still a luxury villa on your wrist."

Charlie said seriously: "My wife. Just buy a watch, so don't buy it again in the future."

Claire smiled and said, "Whether to buy or not in the future depends on how I feel and whether I can make money.

Anyway, you don't count."

Charlie smiled and nodded: "Well, I will listen to you."

Claire said with satisfaction: "This is pretty much the same!"

After finishing speaking, he quickly took out the watch and said to Charlie: "I will help you wear it.

From now on, you will try to wear it every day. Don't wear it for a few days."

Charlie smiled and said, "I gave it to my wife, of course I have to wear it every day!"

Claire nodded, and while looking at the watch on Charlie's wrist, he exclaimed: "It looks good! It is low-key and connotative."

It looks much better than the big gold watch that the local tyrant likes! Husband, don't take it off. I will wear it when I go to a concert later!"
