

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3264-3265

Charlie recalled that Loreen had seen self and Stefanie Sun . At that time, she lied to her and said that she was the helper of Stefanie Sun's family. Loreen knew this, and she asked, she must have deliberately teased herself.

So, he casually said: "Actually, I have never felt anything like idol stars. I just liked it for the first time, so I came with her to take a look."

"So that's the case." Loreen didn't expose it, and asked Claire with a smile: "Hey, by the way, Claire, which district and row are your seats? Let me see if we are close."

Claire said embarrassingly, "I forgot if you don't ask. Charlie helped get the ticket.

I don't know which row and seat it is."

After speaking, she looked at Charlie and asked, "By the way, my husband, I haven't asked you yet, which row of seats are we in?"

Charlie took out the ticket and took a look, and said: "This is the first row, 18th and 19th of the infield."

Loreen suddenly exclaimed: "Let me go! The first row in the infield?! Charlie, you are almost the most golden position!

You can get this kind of ticket, you are too awesome!"

Charlie smiled casually and said, "Hum, there is actually a customer relationship, you know, I don't always show people Feng Shui or something."

Loreen curled her lips, took out her own tickets, and said with some disappointment: "Hey, I was looking for relationships everywhere, and only got the sixth row of an infield, which is several rows away from you."

The venue for large-scale concerts is usually a stadium, and the stadium is usually a standard football field, so the venue is large in size and volume.

However, because the stage is to be placed at one end of the football field in the stadium, only half of the stadium can be used to sell tickets.

The fan-shaped stand area around is generally cheaper. The farther you go, the cheaper it is. The most expensive part of the real core is the infield ticket.

The so-called infield ticket is the location in the center of the entire football field.

This area is closest to the stage and directly in front of the stage, so it is the best place to watch the concert.

Of course, the most expensive of these is the first row, which belongs to the golden area with absolutely no cover.

Moreover, there were forty people in the infield row, and the No. 18 and No. 19 that Charlie got were just in the middle of the entire first row.

The first row starts on the 16th and continues to the 25th. These ten seats are the best seats, and the positions of Charlie and Claire are among the best among the ten seats.

Claire didn't expect that Charlie could get such a good seat.

He couldn't help asking in a low voice, "Husband, how could Miss Sun give you tickets for such a good position?"

Charlie whispered in her ear: "People in the entertainment industry are very superstitious of Feng Shui, don't you know?"

They are calling me Master Wade now, they must also hope to have a long-term relationship with me, find me. It costs millions to watch Feng Shui once, so what does it mean to them to send two better-positioned tickets?"

Claire couldn't help sticking out his tongue and jokingly said, "It's still more enjoyable to be a master.

When will you package and wrap me so that I can also be a master?"

Charlie smiled and said: "Then you can be packaged as a master of success.
