

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3296-3297

“Here, I also call on the vast number of capable fans to do their part in helping orphans, so that orphans across the country will no longer be displaced, lack food, clothing, self-esteem, and be discriminated against.”

“Finally, here, I wish all of us, the road ahead is slow, the future is promising, and we cherish it!”

After Stefanie Sun’s recording had read these paragraphs, the lights in the entire stadium suddenly lit up.

At this moment, countless fans cried again and lost their voices.

Because, they knew very well in their hearts that when the lights came on, it was the end of the song.

Just like when the movie ended, the lights came on to announce the end of the performance.

Moreover, Stefanie Sun has just used her own handwritten text to say goodbye to everyone, so naturally there will be no return or easter eggs in the future.

All the fans sat in the same place, because they haven’t recovered from the words left by Stefanie Sun just now.

They could not accept that their idols and goddesses suddenly announced their withdrawal from the entertainment industry without warning!

You know, Stefanie Sun hasn’t reached twenty-five years old. She is now in the upswing period of her career. If she continues to work hard for a few years, she is likely to create the pinnacle of Chinese singer’s influence in the world and become the world’s most popular singer. Chinese singer.

But such a superstar with a bright future has chosen to quit permanently. For fans, this is more than a surprise to fans, it is simply thunderous!

Many female fans with relatively weak psychological endurance have lost their voice in pain almost at this moment.

And these male fans were also aggrieved one by one, even many of them clenched their fists, their veins violent.

They couldn’t stand their goddess, and gave up all fans who liked her just for the sake of a man.

This will not only hurt their feelings, but also sting their hearts.

Because they know that in the eyes of their goddess, all men in the world may not be as good as her prince charming.

Even Claire was stunned. She looked at the stage dumbfounded and whispered in her mouth: "How can you just withdraw like this? How can you just withdraw like this?! Obviously there is still a great prospect, why do you want to be a man?"

Give up your career completely? Isn't it possible to sing after getting married and having children?"

There are at least tens of thousands of people who have the same ideas as her.

No one understands why Stefanie Sun made such a big sacrifice for a man.

Among the tens of thousands of people at the scene, there are only three who can truly understand Stefanie Sun.

Two of them are naturally her parents, and the only remaining one is not Charlie, but Ito Nanako.

Because the education Ito Nanako received from an early age was to strive to be a good wife and mother in adulthood.

As for your personality, your hobbies, and your career, it doesn't matter in front of this goal.

Therefore, at this time, she also muttered deep in her heart: "I really envy Stefanie Sun's courage to say what she wants most in front of so many people.

If God gives me a chance, let me and Charlie stay together. I am willing to give up everything like her..."

As for Charlie, he was moved by the last two paragraphs of Stefanie Sun.

All the income will be donated to the charity foundation to help orphans. Stefanie Sun will make such a decision, certainly because of her experience in the orphanage in the past ten years.

This made him sigh in his heart, Stefanie Sun really is thinking about him all the time...
