

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3298-3299

It was a long time after Stefanie Sun left the scene that there were fans who recovered and left the scene cursing.

Many female fans also turned away silently while wiping their tears.

Charlie even heard a male sling behind him, cursing and saying: "Grass! What the hell is this silly prince charming, don't let Lao Tzu meet him, or Lao Tzu will interrupt his horseshoes." !"

Then someone immediately agreed: "My buddy, I'll be the one at that time! This is forcing the fu*k to snatch our wife, I think he doesn't want to be mixed up!"

"How can this bastard make my goddess sing in a wedding dress and rush to marry him?! Damn, I'm so mad at me!"

Charlie only felt a chill in his back at this time.

What is the Enemy of the People?

This is the fu*king enemy of the whole people!

Claire on the side also said with some loss, "Husband, let's go back too."

Charlie nodded slightly.

Claire stood up and said to Zara banks who was beside him: "Miss Banks, my husband and I will leave first."

Zara banks hurriedly said, "I'll go too, let's go out together."

After speaking, he quickly stood up.

Charlie looked at Orrin Sun and Angie, always feeling that he could not say hello to them if he left, and he was really not respectful enough.

At this moment, Orrin Sun looked like I understand you, nodded lightly and waved his hand with a smile.

Angie also gave Charlie a relieved look, which meant that Charlie should go home quickly and leave them alone.

But Charlie knew that the two of them were going back to Eastcliff tonight, and they were probably going to the airport soon.

In desperation, he could only decide to go back and say goodbye to the two on WeChat.

As for the five golden flowers, because they are sitting relatively outside, when everyone starts to exit, they have to give up the first row of aisles immediately, so everyone just got up from their seats and was pushed by the crowd. Going out.

This whole scene, the scene of tens of thousands of people leaving together is very spectacular.

When they came, the distance between these tens of thousands of people was very long. Some came early and some came late.

But now, they all got up one after another, rushing to several exits in a brainstorm, so the whole stadium seemed extremely congested.

When Charlie and Claire walked out of the first row of seats, Doris Young, Jasmine Moore, Ito Nanako, Aurora, and had all left.

With so many people around, Charlie did not deliberately look for them.

His wife Claire and Zara banks walked side by side. Seeing Claire's eyes flushed, Zara banks asked curiously, "Ms. Claire likes Stefanie Sun?"

Claire nodded lightly and said seriously: "I have always liked her very much. I feel that not only does she sing well, but she is also a very clean stream that is very rare in the entertainment industry nowadays."

Zara banks smiled and said: "Don't doubt, she is not only a clear stream, but also the only clear stream in the entertainment industry."

Claire asked curiously: "What does Miss Banks say?"

Zara banks smiled and said: "Let's tell you this. In the entertainment industry, the most indispensable thing is Feiyang Gougou. Some people sell themselves for profit, some fake the past for reputation, and some people tend to be inflamed for relationship..."

"There are still people who have racked their brains for the establishment of a person, and they have tried their best to fry CP..."

"Some of them are born in poverty, and they have to package themselves as rich second generations;"

"Some people have no literacy level in their stomachs, and they have to pack themselves into a five-car for learning riches;"

"The most disgusting thing is the so-called public knowledge who worships foreigners and foreigners. In order to eat a meal, they slander the country, and even pack those dirty and messy third world countries into a fairyland among adults, with malicious intentions and despicable goals;"

"In addition, there are countless plagiarisms and malicious hype. If you really want to count them down, no one's history is absolutely clean."
