

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3334-3335

What made Jasmine realize that the situation was not quite right was that after all these clues were clear, and they all matched with Charlie, Charlie's surname was like the last piece of evidence to lock all clues, making her immediately treat herself There is no longer any doubt about the speculation.

She thought to herself: "In this way, Master Wade must be the young master of the Wade Family of Eastcliff, and the Wade Family must have had a good relationship with the Sun family back then. So when the two children were young, they had already decided on a marriage, but Something happened to Master Wade in the middle, so that he fell into Aurous Hill and became an orphan!"

At this moment of thought, she had mixed feelings deep in her heart.

In the past, she felt that Charlie was a model of grassroots, but she succeeded in counterattack by virtue of her own ability. Based on this, she always felt that she was not inferior to him in front of Charlie everywhere, at least, her own He was born better than him, and his natural social rank is higher than him.

Jasmine didn't mean to look down on Charlie, she just used this view to cheer herself up and make herself feel that she and Charlie are not far away.

But now she knew that not only was her origin not better than Charlie, on the contrary, her origin was almost a thousand miles worse than Charlie.

The Wade Family's overall strength is more than ten times stronger than that of the Moore Family!

If the base is small, ten times, it doesn't seem to be a big gap, but if the base is large enough, the gap is simply scary.

To make a simple analogy, one child has a lollipop in his hand, and another child has ten lollipops in his hand. This ten-fold difference is not a big deal. Parents only need to spend a few dollars. Can help children catch up.

But if your home has a local house, and another person has ten local houses, the gap will be so big that many people cannot cross it.

What's more, what I'm talking about here is 100 billion-level assets, and the gap between trillion-level assets is simply more than an order of magnitude.

It was also at this moment that the inferiority complex deep in Jasmine's heart reached its peak in an instant. Now she feels that there is a huge gap between herself and Charlie everywhere. With Charlie, she hardly has any hope.

At this time, Claire didn't know Jasmine's inner changes. Seeing Jasmine stopped talking, she thought that Jasmine had no interest in her husband's topic.

She couldn't help but sigh: "In fact, Charlie really didn't eat it before. He lived in an orphanage until he was eighteen years old, and then he came out to work to make money.

All he did was the dirty work, and only a small part of the money he earned was spent on himself. Almost all of the money was donated to the orphanage to help the younger brothers and sisters in the orphanage.”

Jasmine nodded gently, and couldn't help but sighed: “To be honest, I really admire Master Wade. With his background, he can still endure so much suffering silently...”

As soon as Jasmine spoke, she immediately regretted it.

She could see that Claire didn't even know Charlie's true identity, so she was afraid that the emotion she had just said would let Claire find out.

But Claire didn't think about this at all.

She thought that Jasmine had a speech problem, and hurriedly said: “In fact, the reason why Charlie suffers so much is because he was born from a bad background and lost his parents very early. If he can have a complete family like ordinary people, then he It may be better today.”
