

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3374-3375

“Circuitously interspersed?”

At any rate, Hunter (Hamid) had studied in China. Although he was not studying military command, he was at least eye-opening, so he immediately blurted out: “Then I will let people release the drone and observe the surrounding situation closely. If they really send troops to infiltrate quietly, the drone will definitely be able to spot it.”

Charliesaid: “Okay, you release the drone, and remember not to let the other party discover it. This way, you can lure the enemy to go deeper and hit them by surprise.”

“Okay!” Hunter (Hamid) said: “From now on, I will definitely play with the spirit of 120 points, and absolutely will not let them have any chance of sneak attack!”

Charlielooked at the time and said, “It should be morning on your side? It’s better during the day, but you must pay attention to the defense at night. If the opponent cannot penetrate and penetrate now, then they will definitely come back in the evening. .”

Hunter (Hamid) smiled and said, “Brother, you asked me to strengthen my defense and hoarding supplies. Not only did I stock up a lot of supplies, I also bought some high-end equipment, including several thermal imaging cameras. If they dare to come at night Attack me, they have nowhere to hide in front of the thermal imaging camera!”

Charliedidn’t help but exclaimed: “Even the thermal imager is equipped, not bad! How about your ammunition reserve?”

Hunter (Hamid) smiled and said: “Don’t worry, the money you gave me last time, I bought a lot of ammunition. The bullets alone cost tens of millions. Even if I can’t get any supplies in, I can keep it here. next year!”

“That’s good!” Charlie side: “I guess they didn’t bring enough supplies to fight you for a protracted battle. If they can’t attack you in three or four days, I believe they will definitely withdraw first to rest. Otherwise, their materials will not be enough to support them to stay there, so you must cheer up these days and don’t let your guard down.”

“it is good!”

Charlie said again: “There is another very important thing. After these few days have passed, you have to take the time to confirm the current situation of the other armed forces.

You can resist the siege of 8,000 people for a few days. It is well-known in the opposition armed forces.

The other armed personnel who have been dispersed have nowhere to go. You can let them come to you. There are also those rumbling and precarious armed forces.

You can also take the opportunity to merge in and improve your overall strength. , After all, you have enough supplies and strong defense capabilities, this group of people will definitely be willing to submit.”

“Yes!” Hunter (Hamid) said excitedly: “I will take this opportunity to make the team bigger!”

“Yeah.” Charlie said: “You must remember that you must do a background check when recruiting this group of people. Don’t let spies come in. In addition, after the established people come in, you must take all of them. Break it up and let your officers manage it, lest they have the idea of rebellion!”

Hearing Charlie’s suggestion, Hunter (Hamid) was greatly excited. He was about to express his ambition to Charlie, and a violent explosion sounded outside again.

He knew that the enemy had withdrawn the infantry, and a new round of shelling was about to begin again!

So he said loudly: “Brother Charlie! The enemy is firing again! I’ll hang up and make arrangements, and I will communicate with you if I have a situation!”

“Okay!” Charlie also said: “Remember, the dam of a thousand miles collapsed in the ant nest.

You must be cautious and cautious. You must not underestimate the enemy, let alone take it lightly!”

“I remembered!” Hunter (Hamid) said loudly, “Brother, wait for my good news!”

After Hunter (Hamid) finished the call with Charlie , he couldn’t help sighing that he could always get a lot of different inspirations from Charlie .

This made him realize that the government army’s commemoration of himself with great fanfare is likely to give him an opportunity to grow and develop.

If you can win this kind of battle that fights more with less, then your reputation in the entire opposition will surely increase!
