

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3392-3393

Lord Banks hurriedly said: "Broken the army! You just returned home after such a long time, and you have to give me a chance to pick up the dust for you, so let's wait a moment for you and your subordinates, I will arrange the kitchen to prepare a banquet. , Let's have a good drink, reminisce about the past, and keep the way. He has missed you for so long. If I knew that you were back and I didn't even save you a meal, I would definitely complain that this old man was not doing well!"

Abbas has always been extremely grateful to Zayne. Hearing this, since the elder has already sent out an invitation, and this elder is still Uncle's father, he also feels that if he does not leave for a meal before leaving, he will be in etiquette. Can't explain it.

So he immediately clasped his fists and said: "If this is the case, then I'm better off being respectful!"

Lord Banks was overjoyed and hurriedly told Banks butler: ! Let the back kitchen prepare a banquet for the VIP guests. If there are not enough manpower, I will go to the best restaurant in Southaven. Bring me the whole back kitchen. You must prepare the best The best food, the best wine, but if there is a little bit that fails to meet the top standards, I will ask you only!"

Bank's Butler hurriedly said respectfully: "Master, don't worry, I will do it now!"

Lord Banks nodded and said to Abbas: "Abbas, let your subordinates come in and rest first, have a cup of tea, and tell the servants if you need it, they will definitely serve and considerate. I am older. No, I'm not in good health.

At this time, I have to take some medicine and inhale some oxygen, and save a little energy. Later, I can drink a few more drinks with you on the wine table!"

Lord Banks's warm and hospitable attitude has also improved Abbas's impression of him a little bit. He also brought a little respect in his words, nodded and said: "Grandpa , you go first. I'll just sit here. ."

Lord Banks smiled and nodded, and then said to the Master Hett who was beside him: "Oh, Master Hett, you accompany me back to the room."

Master hatt quickly said: "Good lord, I will help you!"

In fact, Lord Banks doesn't need medicine or oxygen at all.

The reason why he wanted to find an excuse to leave first at this time was mainly because he couldn't wait to find out with Hatt, what kind of organization is this Wanlong Palace, and what kind of strength it has?

Lord Banks took at master hattall the way to his room. After closing the door, he lowered his voice and asked hatt : "What is the origin of the Wanlong Palace? Why have I never heard of it?"

hatt hurriedly said: "Master, it is normal for you to have never heard of the Wanlong Palace, but I have to say that the strength of the Wanlong Palace is very strong, especially in the past few years, they have almost never failed in the mercenary field, I hear Some overseas martial arts colleagues have talked about it. It is said that the Wanlong Temple masters are like clouds, and the strength is above me. If there are less than a dozen people, and if there are more, it is possible to say dozens of people!"

"Damn!" Lord Banks blurted out: "This is nonsense, right? How could Wanlongdian's strength be so strong? A huge Huaxia wants to find someone who is stronger than you.

I'm afraid there are not even five of them. Why is he? Can one Wanlong Palace have so many masters?"

Master Hett said: "Master, there is no room for martial arts masters to play in the country for a long time and peace and prosperity. Just like the old escort, it was indispensable in the chaotic times of ancient times. But now, besides those war-torn places, how can anyone eat this bowl of rice? If you want to eat this bowl of rice in China, I'm afraid you won't even be able to eat shit..."

"So most of the martial arts masters can't make money in China. They went overseas to establish a foothold early. Not to mention, just the first overseas Chinese gang-the 'big circle gang', there are at least several strengths in me. The top masters above, most of these masters have gone overseas to develop in recent decades, and their strength is much stronger than the double bonus red sticks mentioned outside!"
