

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3398-3399

The words of Abbas shocked Lord Banks's heart.

If he still wanted to use Abbas just now, then he really admired Abbas now.

It is simply admirable for a young man under thirty to develop to this scale in a world of bullets and bullets.

So, he took the initiative to hold a glass of wine and said from the bottom of his heart: "Broken the army! I have never admired anyone in my life. Bruce of the Wade Family is the first, and you are the second. Come, I toast you a glass!

When Abbas heard the three words Bruce, his expression was slightly cold. Soon, he looked at Lord Banks and asked seriously: "Grandpa, Bruce is really as strong as in the legend?"

Lord Banks nodded and said sincerely: "Although I have a deep grievance with the Wade Family, I also have to admit that Bruce is indeed very strong. Ya, while feeling in his heart that having a child should be like Bruce..."

Abbas looked solemn and asked seriously: "Grandpa, I want to know where Bruce is strong."

Lord Banks said with emotion: "Oh... Bruce seems to be a scholar, very elegant and demeanor, but he is not a martial artist, and he cannot be said to be powerless, but compared to a martial artist, it's almost there."

Abbas asked again: "Then why do everyone think he is strong?"

Lord Banks thought for a moment, and said very seriously: "The word 'strong' does not necessarily mean that the fist is hard. Bruce's most powerful place, I personally think there are three points."

"Which three points?"

Lord Banks said: "First, it is his strong personality charm! You know, most people are born to be unwilling to be led by others, but Bruce's personality charm makes many people willing to follow him. Obey him;"

"Second, it is his unparalleled personal ability! Bruce has an extraordinary strategic thinking and an overall view.

In the market, he is a top genius who can truly manage between tactics and win thousands of miles away;"

"Third, it is his self-control ability different from ordinary people!"

"Bruce never advances too aggressively because of the optimism of the situation, nor is he too cautious because of the pessimistic situation. Just like the rapidly changing futures market, Bruce can unswervingly immediately after reaching the predetermined goal in the rapidly rising market. Even if everyone is optimistic about going long and feels that they will continue to rise in the future, he will not change his predetermined goal. Most people can't do this!"

"In addition, Bruce had countless fans back then, and the women who liked him were even from Eastcliff, and from China to abroad. Among them, there were many who took the initiative to give to them, but Bruce was able to shut out all temptations.

, A man who can do this, in real life, I have only seen him!"

Speaking of this, Lord Banks sighed: "In short, this person is the one I admire most in my life!"

Hearing this, Abbas frowned and asked, "Why is Bruce so powerful, why did he die? Who killed him? There are rumors outside that the Banks family killed him. I wonder if it is credible?"

Lord Banks chuckled and said: "Let me tell you this. When Bruce's rays were at its peak, our Banks Family relied on uniting many people to form the Anti-

Wade Alliance, and then we managed to carry it over. In the final analysis, the Anti-wade Alliance was actually it was not an active organization, but was established to report to the group for warmth.

If we were able to kill him, we wouldn't have been overwhelmed by him in the market. In the end, we can only hold a group for warmth."
