

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3400-3401

“What’s more, Bruce had already retired from the business world when he died. What is the point of killing him at that time? Everyone is in business. Who will do this kind of unrequited loss-making business?”

Abbas nodded solemnly, and then asked, “Who is it that killed him?”

Lord Banks shook his head: “I don’t know this. People have different opinions in those years, but no one has conclusive evidence. Slowly this matter has passed for too long, and no one will go after the whole story.”

Abbas sneered, and said: “It seems that the thinking of strategizing and winning thousands of miles is far from enough! If you want to gain a foothold in this world, you have to live your mind and your fists! If Bruce could have me in those days One-tenth, or even one-percent of the forces in the Dragon Palace will not be killed at a young age!”

Lord Banks was stunned slightly, then he reacted and quickly smiled and said, “You are right to break the army! In these days, it is meaningless to have a good brain and use both civil and military skills!”

After that, he said flatly: “In my opinion, you are the model of both civil and military. The future of you and the Wanlong Palace is bound to be unlimited! Come, I respect you!”

Abbas smiled, raised his wine glass, and said to Lord Banks: “When I win the Wanlong Temple in Syria, and when I move my parents’ coffin to Wanling Mountain, Wanlong Temple will spend three to five years.

Time, relying on Syrian bases, fully infiltrate, and even cover the entire Middle East! At that time, I will be the king of mercenaries!”

The king of mercenaries is the second major goal of Abbas’s life.

And the first one is naturally to avenge the parents.

Now, in his opinion, he is not far from these two goals.

The situation of the war in Syria is now very good, and the final victory will surely be won before Qingming Festival.

At that time, his four great war kings gathered in Eastcliff, took the Wade Family away, and then went to Syria for full development.

All of this has now shown a natural tendency!

And just when Abbas was in high spirits at the wine table, the situation in Syria had changed unexpectedly.

Gorka, who was leading a thousand dragon temple soldiers to march in the valley, didn't know what exactly was waiting for him next.

Under the cover of the rumble of cannons, the thousand people quietly followed the gully on the side of the mountain road and circled towards the west side of Hunter (Hamid) base.

The route chosen by the Gorka was very concealed, almost entirely of valleys and reverse slopes, which were invisible from the high ground where Hunter (Hamid)'s troops were located.

Coupled with the shelling as a cover, he felt that Hunter (Hamid)'s people could not have noticed that one of the troops had left the frontal battlefield.

The mountain road is rugged, and in order to avoid being discovered by Hunter (Hamid)'s men, they have specially designed a circular arc route. Therefore, although this road has been marching in a hurry, it also took a lot of time because of the large circle. .

However, Gorka planned everything carefully, thinking that he could cross the sea without hiding the sky, but he couldn't think of it. As early as when he first took the troops out, the drone of Hunter (Hamid) in the sky had already captured the movements of his own troops.

And now, Hunter (Hamid) has laid a death trap, waiting for him to throw himself into the net!
