

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3414–3415)

The news of the death of a thousand soldiers of Gorka and the Wanlong Palace was like a bolt from the blue to the commander of the offensive side!

He didn't care about the life and death of the Gorka and the soldiers of the Wanlong Palace, but felt that if even the Wanlong Palace could not attack Hamid's fortifications, the bunch of hanging silks under his own would be even more hopeless.

Moreover, he brought a total of more than 5,000 soldiers, nearly 2,000 people died in two rounds of assault, and 1,500 people died in the Dragon Temple, and the actual combat power was lost at least half of them right now!

What's more serious is that after two charges, his soldiers have clearly realized that it is almost impossible to capture Hamid's position with flesh and blood. They have seen two charges with their own eyes and so many deaths. My comrades in arms, each of them was full of fear for the charge.

Morale is already extremely low at this time. If you forcefully organize a third assault, it will have no meaning other than death.

Therefore, he also knew very clearly that he would never have another chance to win Hamid this time.

Therefore, he immediately reported the situation to his superiors and asked his superiors to approve him to withdraw his troops and go back to rest.

When his superior heard the situation here, he was furious with anger!

The many victories in the past few days have long made him full of expectations for the elimination of the opposition, and he firmly believes that this goal will be achieved soon.

Unexpectedly, all of a sudden, reality gave me a blow.

In a war, even the enemy has not even seen it, and it has already caused more than 3,000 deaths, which is really unacceptable.

What is even more incomprehensible is that Gorka led more than two thousand Ten Thousand Dragons Palace soldiers and won many victories in succession. In the eyes of their group of local commanders, they are simply the invincible super god of war.

Seeing who can think that such a super god of war would die if he said he was dead...

Out of anger, he immediately synchronized the news to Chen , one of the four kings of the Pantheon.

At this time, Chen was waiting for feedback on the results of the four battles of the Wanlong Palace in Damascus. He suddenly received news of the death of Gorka. He couldn't believe it until the other party sent the video taken by the scout to him. Do not accept this reality.

In a small-scale battle, more than 1,500 brothers and a five-star general were killed. This is the first time since the establishment of the Wanlong Temple.

Chen really couldn't understand why an opposition armed with a mountain as king could have such a strong combat power. He always felt that this matter was extremely strange, so he didn't dare to delay any, so he called in a hurry to prepare for this period of time. Report to the lord of the Wanlong Temple, Abbas.

At this time, Abbas was chatting with Lord Banks at the dinner table of the at villa.

Don't even think that Lord Banks is the dignified Banks Family Patriarch, this old thing is really like a dog, and his level and accomplishments are extremely high.

Originally, Abbas had an opinion on this old guy. After all, he had always looked down on his father. If it weren't for Zayne's face, Abbas wouldn't even bother to eat and drink with him.

However, this old guy started all kinds of compliments as soon as he got on the table, and Abbas was able to take it lightly at the beginning, but soon he felt a little airy.

For people like Abbas, having to bear the humiliation for so many years is indeed quite depressing in his bones.

The more such a person, the more he needs an opportunity to release, the more he needs others to know his abilities, and to affirm and praise him.

Therefore, when he discovered that Lord Banks, the Patriarch of the banks Family, who had made his father dare not breathe in front of him, actually bowed and flattered himself, his heart that had been suppressed all the year round because of his failure to avenge his parents also gained Great satisfaction.
