

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3444 )

As soon as Onizuka's words fell, fierce gunfire sounded around him.

At this moment, although there are still a half of the people alive, almost all of them are lingering and can still carry guns. There is no more than a tenth of them.

Moreover, even if they can still hold a gun, their bodies have suffered considerable damage in the explosion. How can there be any scale of combat effectiveness at this time?

not to mention. Although the training level of Hunter (Hamid)'s soldiers is not high, they are very detrimental in the battle.

They know that they are poorly trained and not strong enough, though. They also knew that the other party was now a wounded tiger, so they didn't rush to fight directly at all. Instead, they engaged in various fire suppressions far away.

In addition to the dense bullets, many soldiers with strong arms began to madly throw grenade towards the position of the first echelon, without giving the opponent a chance to fight at close range.

This kind of play that consumes the opponent to death is extremely practical, not only further hitting the enemy. There is nothing to lose.

At this time, several grenades exploded next to Onizuka, making him who was already on the verge of death completely dead.

Listening to the gunshots and explosions over there, Chen almost collapsed.

He immediately switched channels and shouted to the government commander: "My soldier has encountered an ambush, let your soldiers attack! Come on!"

When the other party heard this, he blurted out: "If your people didn't destroy the other side's fortifications, we won't rush to die!"

Chen i roared with red eyes: "You can't save you, believe it or not, I will kill you in one shot!"

The other party said disdainfully: "Since you have this ability, why don't you save your subordinates yourself? It's a pipe dream to ask me to use my subordinates to help you save people!"

"You..." Chen almost vomited a mouthful of old blood, gritted his teeth and cursed: "You're so f*cking impatient! I'm protesting to your superiors now! You wait to go to the military court!"

"I'm sick." The other party didn't bother to talk to him, and hung up the phone.

Although Chen was extremely angry, he was also very clear in his heart that it was too late for him to do anything.

There is no way I can save the living brother back.

Even, those thousand brothers are probably no longer alive.

at this time. The cry of killing from the communicator was getting closer and closer.

Chen knew that Hunter (Hamid)'s soldiers had rushed forward and began the final finishing touch.

This also proves that his soldiers have been killed and wounded, and they are likely to have been wiped out.

Subsequently, the gunshots were getting closer and fainter. When he could clearly hear the footsteps, the gunshots had completely stopped.

At this moment, Chen has clearly realized. These thousand elites have all been killed in battle, and no one is spared!

...

Hunter (Hamid) won again.

Amazingly, this time there were no casualties among his soldiers.

Even though these paratroopers are the elites of the Wanlong Palace, even if they all have very complete weapons and equipment, but under Charlie's tactical arrangements, this group of people has no chance to exert their advantages at all.

In the face of a powerful explosion, even the torrent of steel could not be able to withstand it, let alone these flesh and blood.
