

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3459)

On Charlie's side, he heard that Hamid had now entered the truce phase, and he was relieved, and then put all his energy on the preparation of the ocean shipping group.

Zara banks complied with the terms of cooperation reached with Charlie and brought all the resources of Shipping Group.

In order to cooperate with Charlie, Nanako Ito also personally set up a joint venture company with Zara banks. Charlie borrowed a word from each of their surnames and named the company Yisu Shipping.

This joint venture company appeared to be jointly established by the Ito family and Zara banks, while the Ito family held 51% and Zara banks held 49%. But in fact, the 51% equity held by the Ito family was for Charlie on behalf of the holding.

The Banks's ocean shipping group had been sanctioned before and all business qualifications were revoked.

However, because the Ito family is a foreign-funded enterprise and has complete qualification certificates, the nature of the Yisu Shipping this time has also become a foreign-oriented joint venture, which has bypassed all previous sanctions for the Banks family.

As Ziva Hank has more experience in business management than Zara banks, and her father Hank is behind the advice, so the CEO of Yisu Shipping, that is, the CEO, is Ziva Hank.

Zara banks, as the COO of Yisu Shipping, that is, the chief operating officer, cooperates with Ziva Hank to jointly manage Yisu Shipping.

Although Charlie is the controlling shareholder of this company, he still intends to be his hand-scrapers. Under normal circumstances, he will not interfere with the company's operations.

Since the Ito family is currently the number one family in Japan, and Zara banks is also the granddaughter of the Banks family, the first Chinese family, and has attracted the attention of the people across the country because of her experience, so this time she will be the shipping group of the banks family. As soon as the news of the cooperation with the Ito family was released, it immediately made the headlines of the major news media.

Ziva Hank felt that this was a good opportunity for a wave of free advertisements, so he took the initiative to find Charlie, planned to choose a good day, hold a press conference, and formally announce the establishment of Yisu Shipping, which is regarded as the first step to gain popularity.

Charlie naturally didn't have any comments, so Ziva Hank discussed with Zara banks and decided to strike while the iron was hot and hold a press conference as soon as possible.

It just so happened that Nanako Ito hadn't left yet, so after a few women sat down to discuss, they planned to take the lead by Nanako Ito and Zara banks to jointly hold a huge press conference at the Shangri-La Hotel.

This press conference invited many domestic and foreign media to participate. As the hidden big boss, Charlie was also asked by several women to be present.

Therefore, on the day of the press conference, Charlie came to Shangri-La early, preparing to participate in today's press conference.

For this press conference, Isaac Cameron specially rearranged the banquet hall of Shangri-La, which was large enough to accommodate hundreds of reporters and guests.

In addition to media reporters, many well-known figures in Aurous Hill were also invited to the scene.

When Charlie arrived at Shangri-La, the reporters and guests had not yet arrived at the venue. Isaac Cameron came to the main entrance to greet him, and after handing Charlie's car to the parking attendant, he said to Charlie: "Master, Miss Ito, Miss banks, Miss moore and Miss ziva are all in the VIP lounge. Would you like me to take you there now?"

Charlie nodded and said, "Take me over."

Isaac Cameron hurriedly led the way, and whispered to Charlie as he walked: "Master, Steward called me just now and wants me to confirm your arrival time in Eastcliff."

Charlie said: "Ching Ming Festival is April 5th, so can't I go to Eastcliff on April 4th?"

Isaac Cameron hurriedly said: "The steward is afraid that you will only be willing to leave on the 4th. He said that the ancestor worship ceremony will be early in the morning on April 5th. For such a big ancestor worship ceremony, it is generally necessary to confirm all ancestor worship two or three days in advance. Process, a family meeting must be held at that time, and you will also have to attend at that time."

Charlie thought for a while and said, "Just let them set the ceremony, and I won't participate in it. I'll do whatever I order when the time comes."

Isaac Cameron explained: "Young master, steward knows that you don't want to go there soon, but he still asked me to pass it on to you. I hope you can arrive in Eastcliff on April 3rd. You don't need to attend the previous family meeting, but on April 4th. It's the last meeting before the ancestor worship ceremony. You'd better be there. There are a lot of particularly tedious etiquette and procedures. If you don't communicate well in advance, you're afraid you will be on a business trip."

Charlie hesitated for a moment, then nodded and said, "Okay, then I will be there on April 3!"
