and sleeping. Here, the wind and rain, the sun and the rain, they can only stand firm at your door. You can imagine who is more uncomfortable.”

When Hunter (Hamid) heard this, his eyes suddenly lit up, and he said excitedly: “Brother, you go on to say...”

Charlie smiled and said: “Look, this is like a group of fishing friends who went to the black fish pond to fish, suffocating their energy to catch the biggest fish in the fish pond, but this big fish is hidden in the water. If you don’t show your head, the fishermen have no choice but to grit their teeth and set up tents on the edge of the fish pond to prepare for a protracted battle.”

“Forget about wind and rain, windy meals, sleepless meals, mosquito bites, and delays in serious work. You can’t just stop doing jobs with an annual salary of hundreds of thousands, or don’t do business with millions of dollars a year just to catch a fish So, if they stay at the fish pond for one day or two days, they can make do. Who can take it for three or five days?”

“Even if there is a hardcore fisherman who has a very stubborn temper and can really clenched his teeth, but when he insists on a week and the fish has not caught, his wife has already remarried the next door Pharaoh with the child. At that time, he will still What can I do?”

Hunter (Hamid) said excitedly: “F*ck, that’s the truth!”

Charlie nodded: “The 15,000 people in the Wanlong Palace are here to contain your fish. The daily cost will be tens of millions of dollars, and the cost is pure compensation, but if these 5,000 people pull Go to other battlefields? Maybe the money earned can not only cover the cost of tens of millions of dollars a day, but also bring tens of millions of profits to the Wanlong Palace. This is the opposite of two tens of millions. Now, do you think they can afford it?”

Speaking of this, Charlie smiled, and said very firmly: “If the Wanlong Palace really dared to drag you for a year or a half, and your supplies have not been exhausted, his Wanlong Palace would go bankrupt. They Most of the people are mercenaries. There is no difference between mercenaries and construction team workers. Whoever gives money will do it. If they don’t give money or give less, they will definitely leave. Have you heard of which construction team workers have feelings with the site owner , Who is willing to continue to work for him if he can’t be paid?”

Hunter (Hamid) laughed and said excitedly: “Understood! I really understand! The most passive one is not my turtle in the urn, but their gang of turtle grabbing guys!”

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: “So I believe that Wanlong Palace must be very worried now. If you suddenly announce that you are going to make peace with them, they will definitely seize this opportunity, even if they are not ready to really make peace with you. They will definitely seize this good opportunity and first get in touch with the people on your side, so that they can feel your attitude and feel your style.”

Hunter (Hamid) nodded repeatedly and said: “My analysis makes sense! Then I will find a channel to contact them and see if they are willing to negotiate!”

Charlie smiled and said: "When contacting, you must be full of sincerity and tell them directly, if they are willing to talk, you will send someone with full authority to represent you to go to their site and talk to them in person, but you have to explicitly talk to them. To make it clear, your representative must have an interview with the Supreme Commander of the Wanlong Temple!"

Hunter (Hamid) said immediately: "No problem, I have a friend who is a supplier of government supplies and has a good relationship with the high-level government forces. I can ask him to help spread a message!"
