

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3480 )

In this world, the last person who wants to negotiate with Hunter (Hamid) is the Wanlong Temple.

The Wanlongdian suffered heavy losses on Hunter (Hamid) this time, and the entire mercenary world is watching their jokes. If the Wanlongdian talks to Hunter (Hamid) at this time, wouldn't it be embarrassing to be thrown at the grandma's house?

However, Chen was also very clear in his heart that the real leader of this matter was the government army. If they were willing to negotiate with each other, but they did not agree, it would cause conflicts between the Wanlong Palace and the government army.

If you continue to do so, let alone kill Hunter (Hamid) for revenge, it is very likely that the government forces will turn their faces, and even the land they promised before will be wiped out.

If that were the case, the Wanlong Palace would be too passive, and the most f*cking thing is that they can't get revenge from the government forces.

Because mercenaries are only species that exist in the gray zone, if they dare to directly confront the government forces of any country, it will inevitably cause international public outrage.

Therefore, in this case, he can only find a way to stabilize the government forces, otherwise he will not be able to recover once the government forces decide to negotiate peace.

But just when the government commander promised Chen to wait a few more days, the middleman sent him some photos.

In several photos, Hunter (Hamid) stood in different mountain tunnels, with various materials piled up behind him.

The middleman also sent a voice for Hunter (Hamid), which was recorded by Hunter (Hamid) himself. "You must think that Lao Tzu's supplies are very scarce. Lao Tzu will now show you Lao Tzu's strategic reserves. Believe it or not, I will. I want to remind you that this is only part of my strategic reserve! If you want to talk about it, please consider it carefully!"

When the government commander saw these photos, he immediately felt that his blood pressure had doubled in an instant!

It is no exaggeration to say that these strategic reserves displayed by Hunter (Hamid) are more than the strategic reserves of the entire government army!

The government troops are now clanging poorly, and all kinds of supplies are in short supply, but Hunter (Hamid) is different. Hunter (Hamid)'s supplies are piled up like a mountain, and there are countless ways to eat and drink!

Moreover, Hunter (Hamid) deliberately displayed the captured weapons and equipment. The 2,000 sets of advanced American-standard equipment in the Wanlong Temple were enough to make his scalp numb.

At this moment, he understood one thing.

This battle can't be fought at all!

So, he came to Chen 's office again with a dark face, and the first sentence after entering the door was: "The surname is Chen, I have already decided. I will negotiate with Hunter (Hamid) this afternoon. If you don't participate in the Wanlong Palace , Then I will talk to them myself, and after the talk we will withdraw the troops!"

Chen suddenly fought like a fight, and blurted out: "Didn't we say that we will wait a few more days? How come you don't have the slightest credibility at all?!"

"Credit?" The other party threw the phone in front of him angrily, and said coldly: "You keep saying that Hunter (Hamid) can't hold on for too long. Look for yourself, this is what you said you can't hold on for too long?"

Chen frowned, picked up the other party's mobile phone and glanced at it, his expression suddenly became extremely ugly!
