

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3481)

He really didn't expect Hunter (Hamid) to have such a massive strategic reserve.

Just looking at his reserves, keeping it for a year is not a problem at all.

So he asked: "Where did these photos come from?"

The other party said coldly: "This is all from Hunter (Hamid) himself!"

Chen 's expression was gloomy, and he gritted his teeth and said, "Hunter (Hamid) is taking our army!"

As he said, he opened his mouth and said: "In this way, it is no longer for me to decide whether or not to negotiate. I will immediately report to our hall master, and he will decide everything!"

The other party said disdainfully: "I don't care about you. I just came to tell you that I have made an agreement with the other party. At three o'clock this afternoon, Hunter (Hamid)'s negotiator will arrive at the military camp by helicopter. Will negotiate with him in person, whether you participate or not!"

After all, he took his cell phone back from Chen 's hand, turned and left.

Chen wiped the cold sweat from his forehead, then immediately took out his satellite phone and dialed it to Abbas who was far away in Eastcliff.

At this time, Abbas was in the old house, watching with great satisfaction the dozens of cheap coffins piled up in the courtyard.

Each of these coffins is made of thin and rotten broken wooden boards.

Although the whole body is painted with extremely poor quality red paint, it can also be seen that there are enough gaps on the coffin board to fit a one-yuan coin.

Moreover, this poor-quality paint smells very pungent, even in the open air environment, it also makes people feel a little discomfort in the eyes and throat.

Looking at so many extremely cheap coffins, Abbas smiled and asked Salmaan very satisfied: "salmaan, where did you buy this pile of rotten wood? I have lived for more than 20 years and have not seen it. Such a rotten coffin..."

Salmaan smiled and said, "Going back to the hall master, these coffins are really hard to find. I took people to the poorest mountainous area, and then asked the old carpenter there to make them overnight..."

As he said, he knocked on the coffin board of one of the coffins and smiled: "People say that the thicker the coffin board, the better, but the thickness of the coffin board is not as thick as the bed board used in the countryside. The old carpenter told me, Although they are in a poor mountainous area, no one in the mountains would like to use such inferior coffins. They would rather go up the mountain to chop down trees and save enough wood to ask a carpenter to take a coffin, rather than sleep in such a tattered coffin.

It is said that such tattered coffins are specially prepared for those old poor households who have no children and no daughters. It costs a few hundred yuan per bite."

"Okay, very good." Abbas nodded in satisfaction, and said: "The day before Qingming Festival, you bring enough manpower to send these coffins to Wade's family! If the Wade Family is willing to take the initiative to hand over Wade, if the mountain surrendered, took the initiative to dig out the coffins of Bruce and all the ancestors of the Wade Family, made room for my parents, and the whole family was dressed in linen and filial piety to welcome my parents' coffins to Yeling Mountain, I can spare them a dog's life, but if they don't want to, these coffins will be regarded as the meeting gifts I prepared for them!

Salmaan was secretly surprised and couldn't help asking: "Hall Master, let the Wade Family take the initiative to dig out the coffins of their ancestors, and then put them on your parents' filial piety. Can the Wade Family accept such a shameful shame?"

Abbas said blankly: "If they accept, I will leave them a dog; if they don't accept, then these coffins are prepared for them!"

Salmaan asked him: "Hall Master, if the Wade Family agrees to your terms, what will you do with Bruce? After all, he has been dead for so many years."

Abbas said coldly: "I have already planned the fate of Bruce. After my parents move to Yeling Mountain, I will personally throw Bruce down in front of my parents' grave! Let my parents in the spirit of the sky, I can see that I finally embraced the blood and blood of the past for them!"

At this moment, the ordermen of the Wanpo Army took a satellite phone and ran over quickly, blurting out: "Hall Lord! The phone of the Blue-eyed Wolf King! I want to report something important to you!"

Abbas frowned and said sternly: "Then he had better have some good news to tell me!"
