

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3505)

With that, Charlie continued without evasiveness: "Moreover, the conditions in your place are too difficult. There is nothing to do. There is not even a tourist attraction. I have no interest in staying here for two days, so I will go back first."

Hunter (Hamid) sneered: "What the old man said is that my place is really meaningless and the conditions are relatively poor, but you can rest assured that after the truce, I will immediately start a new round of infrastructure construction, and I must dig a few in the mountain at that time. Come out of a high-end guest room. When you come next time, my brother, I will definitely entertain you!"

Charlie smiled and agreed on the surface, but he was muttering in his heart, this kind of broken place, he really didn't want to come again in the future.

Three hours later, news came from Hunter (Hamid)'s scouts that the government forces had begun to retreat.

Most of the infantry have already left in vehicles, and the original artillery and armored vehicles have also been withdrawn to the capital. Only a few soldiers are left to pack tents, mobile houses and other materials.

At this time, Hunter (Hamid)'s adjutant came to report, claiming that a helicopter was approaching the base.

Hunter (Hamid) knew that Said must have come to sign the armistice agreement, so he ordered his adjutant to take him directly to his headquarters after the opponent arrived.

Soon, several soldiers brought Said and Chen to the headquarters.

Seeing Charlie, Said bowed respectfully and said: "Master Wade, I'm really sorry for keeping you waiting!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "It's okay, how is your situation there?"

Said hurriedly said: "Most of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple officers have been recruited.

We have fixed a large amount of evidence, and we are handing it over to news organizations to edit the evidence, which will be sent to the world later."

As he said, he hurriedly took out a thick stack of A4 paper, handed it to Charlie's hand, and respectfully said: "Master Wade, this is Chen 's confession."

Charlie took the thick pile of paper, and did not open it immediately, but asked him: "Sayed, has your armistice agreement been brought?"

"Bring it!" Said hurriedly took out another document, handed it to Charlie, and then to Hunter (Hamid), and said: "This is our armistice agreement template.

Commander Hunter (Hamid) can Let's take a look first, Master Wade doesn't understand Arabic, let me explain to you verbally."

Charlie nodded, and said casually: "Okay, you can talk about it."

Said hurriedly said: "First of all, I personally and my leadership are very grateful to Master Wade. You not only saved me, but also our country."

Charlie waved his hand: "Raise your hand."

Said said gratefully: "Because of your gratitude to Master Wade, our armistice agreement basically does not list any requirements.

As long as Commander Hunter (Hamid) also agrees to the ceasefire, both of us will immediately enter an indefinite ceasefire.

We will also explicitly prohibit our soldiers, weapons and vehicles from entering within a 30-kilometer radius of Commander Hunter (Hamid)'s base. From now on Commander Hunter (Hamid) can continue to develop and expand, and we will not interfere."

Said Said again: "Of course, while we respect Commander Hunter (Hamid), we also hope Commander Hunter (Hamid) will not take the initiative to attack us.

If Commander Hunter (Hamid) can do nothing against us, then we will Never start a war against Commander Hunter (Hamid), and the two sides will develop peacefully without aggression against each other!"

Charlie knows that these two completely different forces cannot achieve permanent and peaceful coexistence.

However, as long as the status quo of Hunter (Hamid)'s siege can be lifted now, it will make him a lot easier and give him more time and energy. To improve their own strength.

In this way, even if he fights again in the future, he can have more initiative.

So he asked Hunter (Hamid): "Commander Hunter (Hamid), do you have any comments?"

Hunter (Hamid) naturally shook his head again and again, saying: "I have no opinion!"

Charlie nodded, and said: "Since there is no objection, then it is so decided. You can sign it directly."

The two said in unison: "Okay!"

Charlie took advantage of the time the two were preparing to sign the contract and flipped through Chen 's transcript. At first, he didn't think it was any strange, but he didn't expect that the more he looked at the content, the more frightened he was!
