

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3515 )

Soon, Jiro Kobayashi, who was wearing a waterproof apron and holding a large broom in his hand, ran over. Seeing Charlie came, he suddenly said with excitement, "Mr. Wade! Do you have a day? Not here anymore!"

Charlie smiled slightly and asked him, "Jiro Kobayashi, how have you been during this period of time?"

Kobayashi Jiro hurriedly said: "Very good, very good! Don and his men are very good to me, but serving that Walter is really troublesome, but it doesn't matter, it can be overcome!"

"Walter..." The corner of Charlie's mouth rose slightly. This Walter was the dog offal that poisoned Doris Young's father before and caused Doris Young's father to nearly die from kidney failure.

Seeing Kobayashi Jiro mentioned him, Charlie asked, "How is the situation with that Walter now?"

Kobayashi Jiro said with a smile: "That dog can only lie on a hospital bed every day, eating, drinking, and even dialysis can't live without the bed. His old son Steve lives in the same kennel with him, but this old guy is very old. I am too old to take care of Walter."

"Yeah." Charlie nodded slightly, and said, "You have a good performance here, and let Don Albert improve your living standards and reduce your work burden by the way."

As soon as Kobayashi Jiro heard this, he said with excitement: "Mr. Wade, you... are you telling the truth?"

Don Albert stretched out his hand and patted his head in a light or heavy pat, and said with a face: "Jiro, do you still doubt what Master said? When did he say nothing?"

Kobayashi Jiro covered the back of his head and smiled,

After that, he hurriedly looked at Charlie, mixed Chinese and Japanese with gratitude, bowed deeply to Charlie and said, "Mr. Wade, thank you! Thank you!"

Charlie smiled and said to Don Albert, "Don Albert, I think your business is really good. Ichiro Kobayashi, who used to be arrogant and domineering, has become so polite now. It can be seen that he has indeed experienced the baptism of the soul here. And remodeling, we must continue to work hard in the future!"

Don Albert was a little embarrassed, he laughed, and said: "Master, you have passed the award. I also learned from you. Let me treat him well! If you are obedient, let's treat him better; if you don't obey, let's treat him. Be strict, and strive to let each of them come in to change their minds and re-behave."

Jiro Kobayashi on the side was so depressed, he couldn't help but mumble: "Damn, what kind of soul baptism and reshaping is my soul, it's obviously that people have to bow their heads under the eaves... If you can put Lao Tzu back to Japan, let Lao Tzu inherit Kobayashi Pharmaceutical again, it is impossible for Lao Tzu to be such a low-handed man!"

Thinking of this, Kobayashi Jiro's hatred for Charlie grew a little stronger.

Charlie looked at him as if he had insight into his psychological activities, so he said to Don Albert: "It is really not easy for Jiro to do this step today. We need more rewards for this kind of advanced individuals who actively reform. of."

After speaking, Charlie thought for a while, and said earnestly: "Let's do this, Don Albert. From now on, I will arrange two bottles of beer for Jiro every day, and then arrange sushi takeaways for him once a week. Jiro's time to come to Aurous Hill is not too short. , Let him find the feeling of hometown."

Just now, Jiro Kobayashi, who still hated Charlie in his heart, heard this, somehow, tears suddenly flowed down.

He looked at Charlie with an incredulous expression on his face, and couldn't help but choked up in his heart: "Damn...I...what's wrong with me... He obviously hates Charlie, bastard! Why... why now feel... I also feel that he is full of paternal love and the brilliance of humanity... Is this... Is this the damn Stockholm syndrome?"
