

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3550 )

At the same time, in Stefanie Sun's Volvo.

Stefanie Sun asked Charlie while driving, " Charlie, you just said that Helena is not doing well, is she sick?"

Charlie nodded: "Yes."

Stefanie Sun couldn't help asking: "What is the disease?"

Charlie thought for a while, and said seriously: "It's hard to say, it's very complicated. The whole system related to the heart has big problems."

Stefanie Sun asked in surprise: "Ah? Is it so serious?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded and said: "Very serious."

Stefanie Sun asked again: "Then is her life in danger?"

Charlie explained: "She is in a situation like walking on thin ice. It is possible at any time to step on the air and fall into the water."

Stefanie Sun's eyes widened: "No, she looks so young."

Charlie said calmly: "Illness never doesn't matter whether a person is young or old. Therefore, people who die young or die even before they reach adulthood have always been in the minority."

"This is..." Stefanie Sun nodded lightly and asked, "Charlie, can you save her?"

After speaking, Stefanie Sun asked and answered: "You must have a way to save her, right? My dad was in such a serious condition that you could cure him. This Helena is definitely not a problem, right?"

Charlie generously admitted: "It's definitely saved. The medicine I gave your dad only takes half a pill to cure her."

Speaking of this, Charlie turned around and said seriously: "But this medicine is too precious, and I don't have any friendship with her. It's the first time I saw you today. Naturally, it is impossible to help her so much in vain."

Stefanie Sun thought for a moment, nodded and said, "Indeed, there are too many people dying in this world, and even gods cannot be saved."

Charlie smiled and said, "But people say that meeting is a fate, so I helped her a little bit earlier. If she really has a heart attack, just do what I said, she will definitely be able to save her. Life."

Stefanie Sun asked in surprise, "Is it the fingertip of the right middle finger you mentioned earlier?"

Charlie nodded: "That's right!"

Stefanie Sun smiled and said, "Isn't this the trick? Could it be that biting the right middle finger during a heart attack will have a miraculous effect?"

Charlie shook his head and said calmly: "It's useless for others to bite, but she can bite."

"It's strange..." Stefanie Sun asked very puzzled: "People have similar physiological structures. Why can her right middle finger save lives, but others can't?"

Charlie smiled mysteriously: "The secret of heaven must not be revealed!"

After that, she immediately told her: "You don't have to have so many problems, okay? Concentrate on driving!"

Stefanie Sun stuck out her tongue: "Okay..."

The two came to the Sun's villa, Orrin Sun and Angie made the cooking by themselves, and they had prepared a table of food.

Seeing Charlie's arrival, both husband and wife were overjoyed.

Orrin Sun directly pulled him and sat on the edge of the dining table, took out the fine wine from his collection, and was ready to get drunk with him.

Angie was in a very good mood, and she took out some red wine to accompany her for a drink.

For Charlie, Angie really liked 10,000 and satisfied with 100,000, so when she looked at Charlie, she didn't treat Charlie as a future son-in-law, but just like her own son.

Charlie also liked the feeling of being in sun's family. The three of sun's family treated him very sincerely.

Coupled with the family-like friendship between the two families for so many years, Charlie really feels at home.

Just when Charlie and Orrin Sun's family of three pushed their cups and changed their cups, Jon sent Helena back to the hotel and returned to Wade's family to resume her life.
