

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3554)

Soon, eight female experts set off from Wade's private hospital to the Shangri-La Hotel in Eastcliff.

Together with Cynthia Wade, Stephen Thompson hurried over from the Wade Family.

At this time, Helena was leaning on the soft head of the bed, her face full of weakness.

Holding her mobile phone, she hesitated and sent a video call request to her mother in northern Europe.

There is a six-hour time difference between the Nordic countries . One o'clock in the afternoon of Eastcliff time is exactly seven o'clock in the morning of Northern European time.

Based on Helena's knowledge of her mother, she must be up now.

Soon, the video was connected, and Helena's mother at the end of the video was sitting alone at the table eating breakfast.

She looked at Helena and couldn't help but smile: "How do you feel in China? Is there anything uncomfortable?"

Helena wanted to say that she was not comfortable with everything about China, but she was afraid that her mother was worried and distressed, so she could only forcefully smile and said: "There is nothing wrong with it, everything is fine here."

After speaking, she saw in the video that her mother's breakfast was just a glass of milk, a few slices of bread and a small piece of butter, and she couldn't help but said distressedly: "Mom, why are you hiding in your room to eat bread by yourself? Why don't you go to the restaurant to eat. "

The direct royal families of the Nordic countries all live inside the palace. Here, most people cook without fire. The royal family has its own restaurant dedicated to serving royal family members.

Helena's mother gave a wry smile and said: "A widow without her husband is going to be scorned everywhere here. I would rather stay in the room by myself and try not to deal with them."

As she said, she couldn't help asking: "Helena, how is your body feeling?"

Helena hesitated for a while, smiled slightly, and said: "I'm pretty good, you don't have to worry about me."

After all, Helena struggled for a while, but still couldn't hold back, she said: "By the way, I saw Jon Wade's cousin today, and he seemed to see that I was not in good health at a glance."

"Really?" Helena's mother suddenly became nervous and blurted out: "If the Wade Family knew that you were seriously ill, they would definitely divorce, right?"

As she said, her eyes flushed, tears couldn't stop streaming down, and choked up: "Helena, Mom really doesn't want you to return to this place. When you come back here, they will only do everything possible to squeeze you. Value and your life..."

Helena hurriedly comforted: "Mom, don't worry too much. Jon Wade's cousin, Jon Wade and even the entire Wade Family are not very good at dealing with each other, so I guess he won't tell others."

Helena's mother breathed a sigh of relief and said seriously: "That's good... Mom hopes that you can live a good life in China, thousands of kilometers away from the royal family, you can also get rid of their control and live more freely."

Helena couldn't help but choked up, and nodded repeatedly: "Mom, you have to take care of your body, don't worry about me."

"Okay..." Helena's mother nodded, remembering something, and then said: "By the way, your grandma has not been in good health recently, so your uncle said that he and your sister must take care of him every step of the way, so he can't go. Huaxia has attended the engagement ceremony between you and Jon Wade, and will send your grandma's housekeeper Wilkin to attend on behalf of the royal family."

Helena gave a wry smile and said: "I only agreed to marry them with the Wade Family on the front foot. They didn't even bother to attend the engagement banquet on the back foot. This is too snobbery..."

Helena's mother shook her head and said, "It's not their problem. It's that your grandma's condition is really not so good. She is now bedridden. The medical team has transformed her room into an intensive care unit. There are several doctors every day. The nurse is watching."
