

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3569)

The first responders didn't expect that there were two experts here, but at this time they didn't care about asking too much, and hurriedly greeted a few people and carried Helena onto the stretcher.

Jon Wade was in a hurry, but felt that he couldn't help much. He didn't know what to do for a while, so he could only call his grandfather Lord Wade quickly.

As soon as the phone was connected, he quickly reported the incident to Lord Wade.

As soon as Lord Wade heard about it, his heart suddenly shook. For fear that Helena would die in China at this time, he hurriedly said to Jon Wade: "Tell the emergency personnel and send it directly to the Yip Group Affiliated Hospital. There are the best cardiovascular equipment in the country. Department! We will also rush over immediately!"

Jon Wade then remembered that his hospital was very authoritative in this respect, and he quickly agreed and said to the emergency personnel: "Send her to the Yip Group Affiliated Hospital!"

The Yip Group's affiliated hospital, like the Shangri-La Hotel, is the entire property business of the Wade Family.

Moreover, for convenience, the Wade Family built the affiliated hospital and Shangri-La Hotel near their manor.

Starting from the Shangri-La Hotel, whether it is going to the Wade Family's hospital or the Wade Family's manor, the distance is very close.

The ambulance hurried all the way and arrived at the emergency center of Hospital within a few minutes.

At the same time, Lord Wade also immediately postponed the time for his relatives to visit the door, from nine o'clock to nine thirty.

Afterwards, he took the immediate family members of the Wade Family and hurried to the hospital.

The Nordic royal princess suffered a heart attack in Wade Family. Once she died, it would have a huge impact on Wade Family's reputation. Therefore, Lord Wade could only postpone everything temporarily and rush over as quickly as possible.

The Wade Family arrived at the hospital at almost the same time as Jon Wade.

But Lord Wade didn't have time to ask about the situation, so he directly asked all the experts in the cardiovascular department to gather in the rescue room to conduct a comprehensive consultation for Helena.

At this time, Helena's state was getting worse and worse.

After ten minutes, several experts reached a unified conclusion.

So, the director of the department came out and said to MR. Wade: "Master, this Princess Helena suffers from severe tetralogy of Fallot. After using epinephrine, she developed irreversible heart failure. It is already time to declare critical illness. To the point, please be sorry."

Jon Wade, who was next to him, was taken aback and blurted out: "Why are you sad? We didn't get married yet, so she's not going to work?"

The head of the department nodded and said earnestly: "Young Master, in the case of Princess Helena, it is very difficult for her to live to such a large age. Most patients with serious illnesses like her will not survive to adulthood."

Jon Wade swallowed, and asked the expert: "Then how long can she live?"

After thinking for a moment, the head of the department said solemnly: "According to my experience, the probability of one to twelve hours is the greatest, and the best result is twenty-four hours."

"f*ck!" Jon Wade burst into a swear word, and said angrily: "Isn't this the f*cking bullshit? A great living person who says he is going to die?!"

The director of the department said helplessly: "There is really no good way to deal with this disease for the time being, even a heart transplant can't solve it."

Feeling unwilling and unlucky for a while, Jon Wade hurriedly looked at Lord Wade and blurted out, "Grandpa, what should I do now!"

Lord Wade was also confused when he heard this, and blurted out: "Director, you immediately organize an expert team to prepare to rescue medicines and equipment, and send Helena to the airport with Jon Wade!"

After speaking, Lord Wade said again: "I will make the Concorde plane ready to take off now and wait at the airport. When you arrive, you will take off directly to Northern Europe. You must send Helena to Northern Europe before her death. You must not let her die. In China!"

Speaking of this, Lord Wade said with a worried expression: "If she really died in China, we won't be able to get rid of this scapegoat!"
