

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3576)

Seeing Lord Wade's agreement, Helena was overjoyed, and almost without hesitation, she said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, I will go back and prepare!"

After speaking, she looked at the two stunned maids and blurted out: "You guys go back with me!"

Only then did the two of them come to their senses, before they had time to think about what happened, they nodded hurriedly and said, "Okay, Your Royal Highness!"

Seeing that Helena seemed to be okay, Jon Wade's wretched thoughts re-occupied the high ground. Just now he felt it was a pity that he hadn't been able to kiss Fangze, but he didn't expect the opportunity to come again.

So, he said hurriedly and diligently: "My dear, I will see you off."

Helena smiled at him and said seriously: "You have more important things, so don't send me off. Hurry up and go back to Wade's house with Mr. Wade. I will come back to the hotel to clean up!"

Lord Wade also said, "Jon, Helena is right. Don't follow the chaos. We have to go back quickly. I will change the time of the foreign relative's visit to 9:30. If it is not good, we will postpone."

After that, he asked Stephen Thompson again: "Sihai, have you told Charlie about the postponed matter?"

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said, "Back to Master, I have already told Master Charlie."

"Okay." Lord Wade nodded with satisfaction, and sighed: "Today and tomorrow, it is the 12th-year event of my Wade Family, and it is also the prelude to my Wade Family's return to the first family in the country. Now the Banks family has fallen, and I another member of the Wade Family will return. I believe it will not be long before the Wade Family will return to the top of the country!"

Corran Wade, Jon Wade, and even Brenden and others on the side were a little unhappy when they heard this.

Because they know very well that the so-called tiger general Lord Wade said is Charlie.

It seems that Elder Wade really regards Charlie as a big help for the Wade Family in the future!

Jon Wade was in a very upset mood at this time. Yesterday his fiancée Helena was taken advantage of by Charlie. Not only did the old man not vent his breath for himself, he even defended Charlie. This incident made him feel so angry that he didn't sleep well all night.

Lord Wade checked the time. It was still 20 minutes before nine o'clock, so he said to Stephen Thompson: "You should quickly organize a team to pick up Charlie from Sun's family. Charlie is a direct descendant of our Wade Family, so be sure to arrive before half past nine and meet these relatives with us."

“Okay master.” Stephen Thompson said hurriedly, “I’m going to prepare and set off immediately.”

Jon Wade’s heart was even more uncomfortable: “What the hell is going on? Charlie is a mere trivial person, and he has to pick it up again and again? He deserves it too?”

Although Jon Wade was upset, he didn’t dare to say anything on the face.

Stephen Thompson hurriedly called to convene the convoy at this time. A few minutes later, a convoy of ten Les Roys had arrived at the gate of the hospital. After picking up Stephen Thompson, it drove towards sun’s house mightily.

At this time, Helena has returned to the hotel.

As she walked quickly to her room, she asked the two maids around her: “Did you report to Olivia about my heart attack?”

The two looked at each other, but they didn’t speak.

Because they knew that they had been exposed, they did not dare to say anything about Princess Olivia at this time.

Seeing that they didn’t speak, Helena said lightly: “I know you are all Olivia’s people. If Via reports, there is no need to report for the time being.”
