

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3580)

Since both the Wade Family and the Sun family had prepared a team, Orrin Sun simply let the Sun family's team follow, which was regarded as helping Charlie to support more scenes.

On the way to wade's house, Stephen Thompson drove in person and reported to Charlie in detail about the accident that happened to Helena today.

Charlie had only three feelings in his heart after listening.

First, Helena is indeed ill-intentioned in concealing the truth;

Second, the Wade Family's throwing the pot is indeed shameless;

Third, Helena could reach a consensus on this basis, proving that they are both human beings, and there is no fuel-efficient lamp.

In addition, he can also infer that Helena's current situation should be dead.

On Huaxia's side, it was difficult for the Wade Family to let her pass the door, and on the Nordic side, it was impossible for her to return easily to the royal family who used her mother's life to threaten her.

She is now in a dilemma.

But Charlie didn't think about helping Helena.

Firstly, he was unfamiliar, and secondly, although Helena was pitiful, she was too scheming.

This kind of person is not suitable for excessive contact.

When the twenty Rolls-Royce drove into wade's house, Lord Wade had already led all the Wade Family members to greet them in person.

In the crowd, Helena has changed into a very formal dress and dress, and put on a very decent makeup. It is completely invisible that she has just walked through the ghost door.

At this time, Lord Wade was particularly excited.

Lord Wade had many expectations for Charlie.

It was not just because of Charlie's unpredictable strength, and the kind of destructive aura that Charlie showed to the banks Family and in the Middle East.

It is because Charlie has mastered the mystery that brings people back to life and youth.

Let alone Helena biting her finger to save her life, it happened more than half an hour ago. During this period, the upper class of Eastcliff has been trying to figure out how Orrin Sun changed his mind from a dying patient with advanced pancreatic cancer to a miracle. He is generally recovered, even twenty years younger.

It's a pity that Orrin Sun is tight-lipped and doesn't say anything to the outside world, even if it's his friend, he doesn't reveal anything.

Others don't know the reason, but Lord Wade knows.

He knew that all of this was done by Charlie.

Because Charlie had said to Cynthia Wade himself.

Just rushing to this point, Lord Wade was also willing to bow down to Charlie.

If being humble and bowing can earn a life extension of twenty years, it is simply the most cost-effective business he has ever done in his life.

However, no one except Cynthia Wade in the Wade Family understood what the old man did.

It was enough to let Charlie come back, after all, it was Wade Family's protagonist.

But the old man personally took all Charlie's uncles, aunts, and brothers and sisters to welcome Charlie at the gate. This kind of surrendering status made this group of people unacceptable.

However, Lord Wade didn't say anything, and didn't let them say anything.

When other people saw him coming out, they could only follow honestly.

Soon, Charlie's vehicle stopped in front of the Wade Family.

Through the car window, Charlie looked at Lord Wade outside the window, and the Wade Family in two rows behind him, feeling a lot of emotion in his heart.

Back then, my parents left Beijing with their own anger, and none of the Wade Family at that time saw each other.

Twenty years later, I returned, but under the leadership of the old man, the Wade Family all came out to line up to greet them.

The comparison between the two is ironic!

At this time, Charlie didn't mean to get out of the car while sitting in the car.

Stephen Thompson had already gotten out of the car in front of him, hurried to the door of Charlie's car, took the initiative to open the door, and respectfully said: "Master Charlie, here we are."
