

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3589)

In the main hall of the villa, Lord Wade had just received all the representatives of the Wade Family's relatives. They were sitting together, sighing the current brilliance and achievements of the Wade Family, and even beginning to imagine the situation of the Wade Family's dominance after the rapid decline of the Banks Family.

As the head of the Wade Family, Lord Wade is naturally elated, extremely happy, and his sense of accomplishment is unprecedented.

Just when everyone was enjoying themselves, the subordinates rushed in panicking and cried out, "No...it's not good! A large group of people broke in! They also killed the head of the nursing home!"

At this moment, everyone in the Wade member hall was stunned!

Only Charlie, the ancient well on the surface does not wave, but deep down he can't help but sigh: "Wanlong Hall, Wanlong Hall, I waited for you all morning, and I finally waited for you! If you don't come, your father is here. It's impossible to start a big show!"

At this moment, Jon Wade blurted out subconsciously: "Who would dare to break into Wade's house and run wild?! Isn't it enough to be tired of living?!"

His father Corran Wade also blurted out at this time: "My Wade Family has been working in Eastcliff for many years, and no one has ever dared to be so presumptuous! Hurry up and gather everyone together! I want to see who is so bold!"

Lord Wade looked solemn, and immediately asked: "You said that the head of the nursing home was killed, is this serious?"

The subordinate who came to report panicked and said: "Master...I don't know about this. The nursing home outside the manor said on the walkie-talkie..."

Corran Wade only realized the key point now, and blurted out: "The general manager was killed? This...isn't it possible?! He is a master of martial arts!"

Others wanted to understand this too, and all of a sudden became nervous.

Cynthia Wade asked nervously at this time: "Oh, it's been, could it be the Banks Family who came to seek revenge?!"

Lord Wade said solemnly: "It's impossible! We and the Banks Family have no apparent conflicts, so even if they want revenge, they can't enter our Wade Family in broad daylight..."

Cynthia Wade stammered and asked, "Dad...then...who would it be..."

After speaking, she looked at Charlie and couldn't help asking: "Cha... Charlie... Did you offend people outside?"

Charlie chuckled and said, "I am going back to the Wade Family for the first time today, and apart from the Wade Family, only Uncle Sun's family knows about this. Even my enemies will not come here to find me. Enmity."

Cynthia Wade felt that what Charlie said was reasonable. After all, Charlie had not let the outside world know about Charlie's return to the Wade Family, and it was unlikely that others would find him to seek revenge.

Just when everyone was nervous, there was a roar from outside and the loud noise of the deflation valve when the truck braked.

Everyone in the Wade Family, you look at me and I look at you. They all know that there must be a big battle outside, but no one knows what to do.

At this moment, Salmaan's voice came from outside: "Listen to me all the people surnamed wade inside. I'm the White Tiger King Salmaan of the Wanlong Temple! I'll give you 30 seconds now, one by one. Get out of here honestly! Otherwise, when I rush in, I will kill you!"
