

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3592)

The Wade Family heard Salmaan say that he had come by the order of the Lord of the Wanlong Palace, and each of them was scared of their souls.

I thought it would be troublesome to offend the Wanlong Temple, but who would have thought that the offending was the Lord of the Wanlong Temple!

This is the mercenary leader of tens of thousands of elite mercenaries under his command!

If you offend him, isn't there no way to survive?

At this time, Salmaan said coldly: "My boss name is Abbas, the lord of the Wanlong Temple! He is the only son of Manar !"

After that, he looked at Lord Wade and asked: "Old thing, the name of Manar, do you still remember?!"

Lord Wade's face instantly turned pale when he said this!

He naturally knew Manar and his wife!

But he never dreamed that the famous Wanlong Palace in the world was actually created by Manar's son!

The other immediate family members of the Wade Family were also scared and almost fainted at this time!

The five siblings, including Corran wade, Myles Wade, and Cynthia Wade, all knew that Manar committed suicide by jumping off the building and his wife committed suicide by taking poison.

As soon as I heard that the big man behind the scenes of the other party turned out to be Manar's son, I knew that the other party was avenging his parents!

Although Manar and his wife committed suicide in the past, they were also lost in the hands of bruce and died after their family broke down.

Therefore, the Wade Family knew in their hearts that even if both Manar and his wife committed suicide, their children would not be able to accept this reality.

At the same time, this blood debt is bound to be recorded on the Wade Family's head.

As the saying goes, the hatred of parents is not shared, so the direct members of the Wade Family heard this, one by one was desperate.

Corran wade was frightened, but in order to get rid of his relationship, he couldn't help but walked out, and he blurted out nervously: "This little brother, we naturally know about Manar, but to be honest, back then, with Manar The contradiction between Liancheng is my second brother, bruce, who has nothing to do with us..."

After speaking, Corran Wade swallowed his saliva and said, "Also, although Manar and his wife walked very early and it is a pity, my second brother and younger siblings also died tragically in Aurous Hill not long after that, as the saying goes. My second brother has been dead for nearly 20 years. In this matter, your palace master shouldn't come to us anyway..."

Salmaan sneered: "Our Palace Master said that even though Bruce did what happened back then, Bruce represents your entire Wade Family, and what you call is the resources of the Wade Family, so this matter belongs to the Wade Family. Everyone is responsible!"

As he said, Salmaan paused slightly and said loudly, "Now, it's time for your Wade Family to pay the price!"

Lord Wade was in a panic, but he insisted on saying: "Back then, when Manar died, my Wade Family is indeed responsible. My son Bruce once sighed with grief when he heard about his death, saying that he would not kill Boren and Boren. It's hard to blame for dying because of him..."

Speaking of this, Lord Wade said with a bit of pleading: "But I also ask the Hall Master for the sake of my son, Bruce, who has passed away for nearly 20 years, and raise your hand! If the Hall Master is willing to forgive the Wade Family, Wade Family Wish. Take tens of billions of cash in return!"

Although Lord Wade felt that Manar's suicide was purely what Manar deserved, and had nothing to do with the Wade Family, and the Wade Family did not need to take any responsibility for this.

But he also understood in his heart that it is impossible to be absolutely objective if the death of his parents is placed on any one person.
