

The Amazing Son In Law ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3619 )

As he said, he said: "And you also know that there are more constitutional monarchies in Europe. Those royal families who have lost power like to hug together and find a sense of existence. With Helena's help, we can quickly compete with those in Europe. The royal family has established a good cooperative relationship, and future development can also get twice the result with half the effort."

Stephen Thompson nodded immediately and said, "Young Master has a foresight, and in the future, if the Wade Family is in your hands, it will certainly be able to flourish."

Charlie smiled indifferently, thinking of something, and then asked him: "By the way, Stephen , Abbas, the old man, who is Manar, should have been a member of the Anti-Leaf Alliance back then?"

"It's not as simple as being a member." Stephen Thompson said hurriedly, "Manar was supported by Zayne. He obeyed Zayne's words. He is definitely a key member of the Anti-Leaf Alliance."

"So that's the case." Charlie said with a smile: "So, that Abbas should respect Zayne, right?"

Stephen Thompson said: "In theory, it should be like this. After all, Zayne was the benefactor of the Wan family back then. Without his support, Manar wouldn't even count as a fart in Eastcliff."

Charlie nodded, and said with a playful look: "That's interesting. Tomorrow after Abbas is up to Yeling Mountain, if I see Zayne in my hands, I don't know what it will be like."

Stephen Thompson smiled slightly and said, "It seems that the young master is already in his chest!"

Charlie chuckled: "Stephen may not know that the supreme commander of the Wanlong Temple in Syria is also locked up with Zayne. The army also knows what the hell is a surprise!"

After all, he hurriedly ordered: "Stephen , don't go to sun's house for now, you take me to another place!"

...

Twenty minutes later, a farmyard in the outskirts of Eastcliff.

As soon as Stephen Thompson drove the car to the door, the iron door of the farmyard was opened from inside.

Wilfred ( LORD Elms ) took two young people from the Elms family to usher in a hurry, and when Charlie got off the car, he said respectfully: "MR. Wade!"

Charlie nodded slightly and asked Wilfred ( LORD Elms ), "What is the situation with those two people?"

Wilfred ( LORD Elms ) hurriedly said: "Several people stared intently, and there were a few people onlookers in the toilet, and there would never be any problems."

Charlie smiled slightly: "Go, take me to have a look."

Wilfred ( LORD Elms ) nodded, flashed around, made a gesture of request, and respectfully said: "MR. Wade please!"

Charlie turned to Stephen Thompson and said, "Stephen , let's meet old acquaintances together."

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said, "Good young master!"

A junior from the Elms family walked quickly ahead and led Charlie and Stephen Thompson into the West House of the farmyard.

In a room less than 20 square meters, seven or eight Elms family members formed a circle. Inside the circle were two men who were tightly tied to the seat and had their heads wrapped in a black cloth bag.

Seeing this situation, Charlie thought to himself that it was enough to tie up a bundle of Zayne. Isaac Cameron was more obedient than a dog now, and he didn't have to spend so much time and effort.

However, the Elms family is serious and responsible in doing things. Naturally, he can't say this kind of words, so as not to undermine the enthusiasm of the Elms family.

So Charlie started directly and tore off the black cloth bag on the heads of the two of them.

At this time, I saw Zayne and Isaac Cameron's mouths still stuffed with towels.

Zayne looked up and saw Charlie, his eyes and expressions immediately became a little nervous and fearful. Seeing that he was so nervous, Charlie took off the towel from his mouth and said with a smile: "Oh, Mr. Banks, don't be so scared, I am Come and see you, by the way there is good news to tell you."

Zayne became even more nervous after hearing this, and couldn't help asking: "You... what good news do you have..."

Charlie smiled and asked him: "Mr. Banks doesn't know if he has heard of the Wanlongdian organization?"

Zayne frowned, and said depressedly: "Of course I know the Wanlong Palace... You... You let me stay in Syria for so long. There are wars there all day long, isn't it just the people from the Wanlong Palace. Mead?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "Speaking of which you may not believe, the lord of the Wanlong Palace is still your old acquaintance!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 3619