

The Amazing Son In Law (The Charismatic Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3631)

Wilfred (LORD Elms) said immediately: "It's in the car behind! I have blocked their mouths and also covered their heads with a black cloth bag."

"Okay." Charlie nodded, and said: "Thank you, Mr. Elms, arrange for someone to take them out and take them to my parents' tomb first, and let them kneel down respectfully."

After speaking, Charlie asked again: "In addition, don't open the black cloth bag on their heads yet, I want to save this suspense until the last moment!"

"Yes!"

Wilfred (LORD Elms) replied respectfully, and immediately arranged several Elms family children to take Zayne and Chen from an SUV behind them.

When the Wade Family saw the two men with black cloth bags on their heads brought out of the car by the Elms family, they were all surprised.

They didn't know what the identities of these two people were, or why Charlie brought two prisoners to Yeling Mountain at this time.

As a result, they looked at each other one by one, not knowing what the origins of these two men came from, let alone what kind of medicine Charlie sold in the gourd!

At the same time, Jasmine, Mr. Moore, and the subordinates brought by the Moore family have joined Ito Yuihiko, and Ito Nanako, father and daughter.

Nearly a hundred people under the Moore family, most of them were ordinary warriors with weaker strength, and some were not even warriors.

The strength of the Ito family is obviously extraordinary.

The more than one hundred people they brought were all masters of the top four ninja families in Japan.

Since the fight in Tokyo Brawl, the Takahashi family and the Matsumoto family have fallen, and the four major ninja families have all loyal to the Ito family.

It's just that these ninjas still don't know what they are going to face today.

Jasmine asked Ito Nanako at this time: "Nanako, shall we call Master Wade?"

Ito Nanako thought for a while and said seriously: "No need, Sister, I'm afraid Charlie's character will refuse our help, so I'd better go directly to Yeling Mountain!"

Then she asked Jasmine, "Sister, when will the car arrive?"

Jasmine said: "I made an appointment with them yesterday. It will arrive at 6:20. I don't know why I haven't come yet. I'll call and ask."

After that, she hurriedly took out her mobile phone and called, and then asked, "I am Ms. Moore who ordered your eight buses. May I ask why your car hasn't come yet?"

The other party said embarrassingly on the phone: "I also just heard about the Wanlong Temple and the Wade Family, so I definitely can't drive to Yeling Mountain today! I'm really sorry. Lu returned it to you."

Jasmine suddenly became angry and blurted out: "How can you do business like this? Don't you have the basic contract spirit?"

The other party was not angry, and smiled and said: "We can't be blamed for this. Quan Yanjing's car rental company dare not rent a car to Yeling Mountain at this time."

Jasmine said: "Then, you can drive us to a distance of one kilometer away from Wanling Mountain, right?"

The other party was unmoved and said, "Sorry, we don't want to cause such trouble. Please forgive me."

Jasmine was very angry. The two hundred people from the Moore family and the Ito family are now waiting eagerly for the departure. If the car problem cannot be solved, the day lilies will be cold when they walk over.

In desperation, Jasmine said immediately: "In this way, I will not force you. You ask the driver to send me the car. I will arrange for the driver to drive there. I will rent the car for as much as I can buy. You don't need to go to Yeling Mountain. After today, these cars will still be yours!"

The other party exclaimed: "Eight cars are nearly five million, are you kidding me?"

Jasmine blurted out: "I'm not so bored! As long as you agree, I will transfer two million to you now, and I will transfer the remaining three million to you when the car arrives!"

"Good, good!" As soon as the other party heard this, he almost agreed without thinking.

Anyway, these cars have been driving for a few years, and the residual value is not even half of the original price. The big deal is when these cars are no longer needed. Anyway, the price of the second-hand car is sold for the new car, how can it be made in blood.

And even if Wanlongdian came to the door, he would have a reasonable excuse. After all, he just rented the car to the guest, and it had nothing to do with him where the guest drove.

Twenty minutes later, the eight tourist buses finally arrived late, so the two families were divided into eight buses and headed to Yeling Mountain in a mighty manner!
