

The Amazing Son In Law (The Charismatic Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3647)

He has killed countless people over the years.

With his strength, after so many years of hard work overseas, he has hardly encountered an opponent that can compete, so every time he goes out, he can win with a crushing advantage.

And every time he wins, the defeated party will plead as he does now, but he has never softened his hand once.

Now, Feng Shui takes turns, and finally it's his turn for the white tiger king to beg others for mercy!

And Charlie, obviously didn't plan to let him go!

He looked at Salmaan, the corners of his mouth suddenly rose a little, revealing a playful but cruel smile.

Charlie's sudden strange smile made Salmaan's heart instantly seem to fall into an ice cave.

Although he didn't know what Charlie wanted to do to him, he could realize that he was going to die!

At this moment, Charlie grabbed the right hand of Salmaan's double fists and suddenly reversed his wrist!

Immediately afterwards, Salmaan felt his two arms as if being sent into a powerful meat grinder.

Afterwards, the two arms were twisted together like a twist!

The severe pain started in the wrists of both hands and spread to the arms!

He could even feel that his wrist broke first, followed by his small arms, elbows and shoulder joints...

And this kind of severe pain deep into the soul's bone marrow is not terrible. What's more terrifying is that this kind of severe pain seems to be carrying a virus, and the virus quickly invades one's body, causing all of his internal strength to disappear out of thin air at this moment.

At this moment, salmaan felt deep fear in his heart!

As a result, he could not hold back anymore, bending his legs, he knelt on the ground involuntarily, and shouted in despair, "Ah...my hand...my arm...it hurts!"

Charlie used facts to prove that although the so-called master is very strong, he may not really be afraid of pain.

Salmaan has practiced martial arts for so many years, and he has never experienced this kind of pain of being twisted into twists between his arms.

Coupled with the disappearance of the internal strength of the whole body, the psychological and physical defenses collapsed in an instant.

Therefore, he could only follow the direction of Charlie twisting his arm and kneel on the ground subconsciously.

And everyone else on the scene saw this scene, all as if they were struck by lightning!

Who can believe that a powerful six-star warrior not only was silently resolved by Charlie with a full blow, but what was even more outrageous was that his arm was twisted into twists by Charlie!

Broken bone scum pierced from multiple places of flesh and blood, and blood gushed out along the wound, it was shocking!

Salmaan was so painful that he had to faint several times, but salmaan was awakened by the intense pain, and he had to let out a howl like a pig in order to try to relieve the violent impact of the pain.

At this moment, Charlie said in a cold voice: "It's in vain that you have practiced martial arts for many years, but in the end you rely on it as a basis and do a lot of evil. Today, I will walk the way for the sky and abolish all your cultivation skills!"

As soon as the voice fell, Salmaan felt that the six meridians that had been opened in his body were suddenly rushed in by an extremely powerful force!

This feeling is as if the magma in the earth's crust is about to rush out of the crater, the force is too strong to bear!

In just an instant, he felt that his six meridians had been broken!

It took years of hard cultivation to become a six-star warrior, but in this instant it was wiped out!

"My meridians...my meridians... just so gone! Just so all gone!"

Salmaan muttered to himself, and suddenly burst into tears!

All his psychological support completely collapsed at this moment!
